Young German Architects:

Young German Architects Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen, 2008 The work introduces innovative projects by young German architects abroad in the areas of general construction interior design urban planning and landscape architecture Publisher's website Young German Architects, 1998 Young German Architects Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 1998 Junge Deutsche Architekten Zwei Angelika Schnell, Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 2000 Young German Architects Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 1998 Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries Germany Real Estate Yearbook 2009, Photographic Architecture in the Twentieth Century Claire Zimmerman, 2014-05-01 One hundred years ago architects found in the medium of photography so good at representing a building's lines and planes a necessary way to promote their practices It soon became apparent however that photography did more than reproduce what it depicted It altered both subject and reception as architecture in the twentieth century was enlisted as a form of mass communication Claire Zimmerman reveals how photography profoundly influenced architectural design in the past century playing an instrumental role in the evolution of modern architecture Her picture anthropology demonstrates how buildings changed irrevocably and substantially through their interaction with photography beginning with the emergence of mass printed photographically illustrated texts in Germany before World War II and concluding with the postwar age of commercial advertising In taking up photographic architecture Zimmerman considers two interconnected topics first architectural photography and its circulation and second the impact of photography on architectural design She describes how architectural photographic protocols developed in Germany in the early twentieth century expanded significantly in the wartime and postwar diaspora and accelerated dramatically with the advent of postmodernism In modern architecture she argues how buildings looked and how photographs made them look overlapped in consequential ways In architecture and photography the modernist concepts that were visible to the largest number over the widest terrain with the greatest clarity carried the day This richly illustrated work shows for the first time how new ideas and new buildings arose from the interplay of photography and architecture transforming how we see the world and how we act on it Proceedings of the First Conference of the Construction History Society James Campbell, Nicholas Bill, Karey Draper, Patrick Fleming, Yiting Pan, Wendy Andrews, 2014 The proceedings of the first conference of the Construction History Society which took place on 11 and 12 April 2014 at Queens College Cambridge featuring 48 peer reviewed papers covering a wide variety of subjects on the theme of construction history

The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun, 2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology

American Architect, 1907 The Middle Ages Frantz Funck-Brentano, 1922 Journal of the American Institute of Architects American Institute of Architects, 1924 German Architecture and the Classical Ideal David Watkin, Tilman Mellinghoff, 1987 German Classicism is a powerful architectural force that is only now being fully studied As this extensively illustrated book shows palaces private houses public buildings and urban planning all received patronage on a scale that could not be paralleled in other countries Of the host of architects whose genius was given such superb opportunities in the years 1740 to 1840 only Karl Freidrich Schinkel s name has become widely known yet this book points out all over Germany rulers were dramatically transforming their capitals and the achievements of Weinbrenner at Karlsruhe Moller at Darmstadt or Klenze at Munich are by any standards astonishing The first part of the book is by David Watkin a leading British authority on the Classical Revival He provides a historical account that sets German Neoclassicism in its regional and political context and notes the impact of France and England and the Franco Prussian style before Schinkel He discusses Schinkel s own work that of Leo von Klenze and Neoclassicism in North and South Germany The book s second part consists of an index of buildings prepared by Tilman Mellinghoff Here every important Neoclassical building both existing and destroyed is listed and described under its location The index is an invaluable source of information available nowhere else in English David Watkin is a Fellow of Peterhouse and a University Lecturer in History of Art at Cambridge University Tilman Mellinghoff is an Assistant Lecturer at the Universities of Cologne and Bonn
