Young Homeless People S. Fitzpatrick,2000-07-14 Young Homeless People takes a broad approach to the distressing phenomenon of youth homelessness While politicians researchers and the media focus on the more visibly homeless those sleeping rough in city centres or staying in hostels this book also considers the young homeless hidden in local communities It places young people s experiences of homelessness in the context of their biographies as a whole and makes policy and practice recommendations based on the views and preferences of young homeless people themselves
