Patrick Chamoiseau

'A brilliant novel which explores the allegorical death of an oral literary tradition, it is redolent with the strains and pops of uprootedness and change.'

Solibo Magnificent Patrick Chamoiseau, 1999-03-30 New York Times notable book of the year In Fort de France Martinique a colorful group of musicians street vendors and hopeless disciples including the author gather under a tamarind tree to listen to legendary bard Solibo Magnificent spin tales Suddenly in the middle of a raucously entertaining story Solibo drops dead So entranced and drunken are his friends they initially fail to realize that their hero has spoken his last word One hysterical listener runs to find the doctor and inadvertently returns with the overly eager sinister chief sergeant who holds Solibo's friends under suspicion for murder At turns a madcap murder mystery a political satire and a lament on the death of a treasured tradition Solibo Magnificent is wildly imaginative and exuberantly lyrical Praise for Solibo Magnificent Both a meaty tale and a cry on behalf of a drowning culture by a poet and a novelist with a raffishly human and lyrical touch Los Angeles Times A world class author whose voice and imagination are like nothing you've read before The Washington Post Book World

Soundings in French Caribbean Writing Since 1950 Mary Gallagher, 2002-11-07 Over the second half of the twentieth century a substantial flow of writing emerged from the French held Caribbean Much of this work is both theoretically knowing and poetically potent and has attracted international attention to the literary resonances of the uniquely complex geo historical situation of the Caribbean and indeed of the Americas in general Much of its passion pertinence and appeal inheres in its approach to time and to space an approach still reverberating with the shock of displacement and its various after tremors an exploded sense of diversity radical relativization the profound expropriations of enslavement colonial erosion Through readings of high profile as well as lesser known writing this book tracks some of the more striking tensions and tropisms at work in the French Caribbean imagination of space and time and their intersection It studies generic interplay textual palimpsest narrative structure and other dynamics of writing that realize and manipulate the intersections of time and space history and memory writing and rewriting voice and text referential space and intertextual space as well as cultural theory and literary practice identity and difference place and displacement In this way it probes both the strains and the stresses and also the insights and gravitations that make for the particular French Caribbean timbre of this volume of writing This specific vibration while illuminating Caribbean New World and post colonial thinking in general also encourages wider reflection on global resonances of displacement and dislocation and on more general issues such as the role of writing and of narrative in particular in the confrontation of absence and presence loss and desire distance and diversity This book locates the problematic of time space in relation to historiographical geo cultural and phenomenological thinking and it also takes account of the detonation of critical interest in what is broadly termed post colonial writing Its fundamental concern however is to show how a particular corpus of writing has in the space of half a century and from a bracing position of hyper relationality responded imaginatively and poetically to the challenge of envisioning place and of relating space to time

Detective Fiction in a Postcolonial and Transnational World Nels

Pearson, Marc Singer, 2009 Taking up a neglected area in the study of the crime novel this collection investigates the growing number of writers who adapt conventions of detective fiction to expose problems of law ethics and identity that arise in postcolonial and transnational settings Essays explore novels set in Latin America the Caribbean India and North America including novels that view the American metropolis through the eyes of minority detectives Ici-là Mary Gallagher, 2003 In Caribbean writing place is intimately inflected by displacement place and displacement are not dichotomous every here invariably implies a there In line with this extreme imbrication of dis location Caribbean writing in French explores questions of increasing global pertinence such as the relation between writing and displacement local and distant space text and place identity and migration passage and transformation Contributions range across genres and the work of writers such as Aim C saire Patrick Chamoiseau Ren D pestre douard Glissant mile Ollivier Gis le Pineau Simone Schwarz Bart and Ernest P pin Topics explored include the poetics of dwelling space the postmodern or postcolonial dynamic of the Creole town and the textualization of place and displacement Also included are essays on the drama of distance the metamorphosis of recent Haitian writing the literary reverberations of the figure of Toussaint L Overture and links between Ireland and the French Caribbean Culture as Text, Text as Culture Elodie Lafitte, Christina Wall, Mary Cobb Wittrock, 2020-05-22 Culture as Text Text as Culture represents a novel interdisciplinary analysis of textuality as it pertains to Cultural Studies More specifically the work examines how the analysis of texts has shaped the most vital contemporary debate of Cultural Studies the recognition that all texts and their contexts are constructs Building upon a Post structural Post modern understanding of truth as a construct Cultural Studies has long since acknowledged the ability of texts to express the time and culture of their origin This work however expands this idea demonstrating not only how a culture is preserved in a text but how that text can in turn define its culture even redefine its history This compendium is structured around four of the most prominent contemporary topics of Cultural Studies the relationship between historical and fictional writing the ability of authors to recreate or redefine history the relationship between language and image and the ability for traditionally marginalized groups to reassert their place in history The book presents articles from a large spectrum of disciplinary fields and civilizations in order to demonstrate how the application of Cultural Studies can unite seemingly disparate disciplines

Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo, 2019-05-06 In Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo examines how twentieth century writers artists and anthropologists from France West Africa and the Caribbean experimented with ethnography and fiction in order to explore new ways of knowing the colonial and postcolonial world Focusing on novels films and ethnographies that combine fictive elements and anthropological methods and modes of thought Izzo shows how empire gives ethnographic fictions the raw materials for thinking beyond empire s political and epistemological boundaries In works by French surrealist writer Michel Leiris and filmmaker Jean Rouch Malian writer Amadou Hamp t B Martinican author Patrick Chamoiseau and others anthropology no longer functions on behalf of imperialism as a way to understand and administer colonized peoples its relationship with imperialism gives writers and artists the opportunity for textual experimentation and political provocation It also Izzo contends helps readers to better make sense of the complicated legacy of imperialism and to imagine new democratic futures

Édouard Glissant Sam Coombes,2018-07-26 douard Glissant was a leading voice in debates centering on the postcolonial condition and on the present and future of globalisation Prolific as both a theorist and a literary author Glissant started his career as a contemporary of Frantz Fanon in the early days of francophone postcolonial thought In the latter part of his career Glissant s vision pushed beyond the boundaries of postcolonialism to encompass the contemporary phenomenon of globalisation Sam Coombes offers a detailed analysis of Glissant s thought setting out the reasons why Glissant s vision for a world of intercultural interaction both reflects but also seeks to provide a correction to some of the leading tendencies commonly associated with contemporary theory today

Waters,1999-06 The Battle of Kosovo 1389 Anna di Lellio,2009-07-15 The Battle of Kosovo of 1389 holds enormous significance in the formation of modern Balkan nation states especially among South Slav and Serbian nationalist circles What has given this single battle such resonance even more than six centuries later and what does it reveal about the complex tangle of identity in the contemporary Balkans Robert Elsie s beautiful new translation brings a little known Albanian epic account of the battle between the Ottoman Sultan Murat I and a coalition of Balkan forces brilliantly to life The fantastic tale of Murat s campaign in Kosovo and his assassination by the Albanian knight Millosh Kopiliq is more often presented from the Serb perspective which extols particularly the valor of the Serbian knight Milos Obilic By proposing an alternative narrative The Battle of Kosovo 1389 offers a more nuanced understanding of this powerful myth of nationalism and belonging Anna Di Lellio s sensitive commentary explores the significance of this epic poem and of the battle more generally in post war Kosovo in reinforcing a collective identity that emphasizes resistance against foreign oppression and identifies strongly with a European predominantly Christian culture The Battle of Kosovo 1389 is an important addition to our understanding of the past present and future of this complex Balkan nation as well as the broader issues of national memory and identity

Lost Wisdom Abbas Milani,2004 In the essays collected here Abbas Milani uses an impressive array of cross disciplinary Western and Iranian theories and texts to investigate the crucial question of modernity in Iran today He offers a wealth of new insights into the thousand year old conflict in Iran between the search for modernity and the forces of religious obscurantism The essays trace the roots of Shiite Islamic fundamentalism and offer illuminating accounts of the work of Iranian intellectuals both men and women and their artistic movements as they struggle to find a new path toward a genuine modernity in Iran that is congruent with Iran s rich cultural heritage This book challenges the hitherto accepted theory that modernity and its related concepts of democracy and freedom are Western in essence It also demonstrates that Iran and the West have more that brings them together than separates them in their search for such modern ideals as rationalism the rule of law and democracy Moving Worlds ,2007
