THE ATOM STATION

A stylized, abstract illustration of a coastal scene. On the left, there are several buildings with flat roofs in shades of brown, yellow, and blue. The ground is a mix of brown and tan tones. In the background, a blue horizontal band represents the sea, and a solid red circle represents the sun. The overall style is graphic and minimalist, using bold colors and simple shapes.

The Atom Station:

The Atom Station Halldór Laxness, 2004 When the Americans make an offer to buy land in Iceland to build a NATO airbase after the Second World War a storm of protest is provoked throughout the country Narrated by a country girl from the north the novel follows her experiences after she takes up employment as a maid in the house of her Member of Parliament Her observations and experiences expose the bourgeois society of the south as rootless and shallow and in stark contrast to the age old culture of the solid and less fanciful north The Atom Station is the work of someone who has seen every cherished dream sold down the river but who loves humanity too much to despair His heroine refuses to be bullied or bought a feminist before her time full of curiosity and spirit Guardian The Atom Station Halldór Kiljan Laxness, 1982-03
