Bell,Christian Jaser,Christian Mann,2021-12-21 This book surveys the practice of horse racing from antiquity to the modern period and in this way offers a selective global history Unlike previous histories of horse racing which generally make claims about the exclusiveness of modern sport and therefore diminish the importance of premodern physical contests the contributors to this book approach racing as a deep history of diachronically comparable practices discourses and perceptions centered around the competitive staging of equine speed In order to compare horse racing cultures from completely different epochs and regions the authors respond to a series of core issues which serve as structural comparative parameters These key issues include the spatial and architectural framework of races their organization victory prizes symbolic representations of victories and victors and the social range and identities of the participants The evidence of these competitions is interpreted in its distinct historical contexts and with regard to specific cultural conditions that shaped the respective relationship between owners riders and horses on the global racetracks of pre modernity and modernity The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of the History of Sport The Improved Art of Farriery James White,1847 Nelson's Navy in Fiction and Film Sue Parrill,2009-12-21 This book provides summaries and analyses of more than 250 novels and nearly 30 films and examines the extent to which they accurately reflect the history mores and manners of the period and the extent to which they reveal the ideas and attitudes of their authors and of the periods in which they were written Particular emphasis is placed on the nature and importance of the war at sea for the British and on the role of famous naval officers such as Nelson Pellew Duncan Smith and Cochrane in the defeat of Napoleon The Modern Farrier G.
