important judgments of the ECJ which established the foundations of the EU legal order The tone is neither necessarily celebratory nor critical but relies on the viewpoint of the distinguished line up of contributors drawn from among former and current members of the Court the view from within scholars from other disciplines or lawyers from other legal orders the view from outside and two different generations of EU legal scholars the classics revisit the classics and a view from the future Each of these groups will provide a different perspective on the same set of selected judgments In each short essay questions such as what would have EU law been without this judgment of the Court what factors might have influenced it did the judgment create expectations which were not fully fulfilled and so on are posed and answered The result is a profound wide ranging and fresh examination of the founding cases of EU law
