DIV Six hundred thousand lives were lost between 1861 and 1865 making the conflict between North and South the nation's deadliest war. If the War Between the States was the test of the young republic's commitment to its founding precepts, it was also a watershed in photographic history as the camera recorded the epic, heartbreaking narrative from beginning to end, providing those on the home front for the first time with immediate visual access to the horrors of the battlefield. Photography and the American Civil War features both familiar and rarely seen images that include haunting battlefield landscapes strewn with bodies, studio portraits of armed Confederate and Union soldiers, sometimes in the same family preparing to meet their destiny, rare multi-panel panoramas of Gettysburg and Richmond, languorous camp scenes showing exhausted troops in repose, diagnostic medical studies of wounded soldiers who survived the war's last bloody battles, and portraits of both Abraham Lincoln and his assassin John Wilkes Booth. Published on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, 1863, this beautifully produced book features Civil War photographs by George Barnard, Mathew Brady, Alexander Gardner, Timothy O'Sullivan, and many others. div Collection of Ancient Chinese Cultural Relics, Volume 6

,2020-02-03 This book is a collection of ancient Chinese cultural relics from the Northern and Southern Dynasties from 960 to 1279. It covers jade and bronze ware, gold and silver ware, and porcelain ware, pottery, porcelain painting, calligraphy, and handicrafts. There are 363 relics in the book. In 960, Zhao Kuangyin, commander of the imperial guard troops of the later Zhou Dynasty, staged a mutiny at Chenqiao and proclaimed himself emperor. He named his new dynasty the Song Dynasty and chose Dongying, Kaifeng, for the capital. This dynasty, now called the Northern Song in history, gradually eliminated rival regimes and ended the separation of the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, co-existing with the Liao Regime established by the Qidan ethnic group and the Western Xia Regime established by the Dangxiang ethnic group. In 1127, Emperors Huizong and Qinzong were taken captive by the Jin Dynasty, established by the Jurchen people, thus ending the Northern Song Dynasty. In the same year, Zhao Gou, then King Gaozong, established the imperial court of Song and moved the capital to Lin'an, present-day Hangzhou City in Zhejiang. This is what history calls the Southern Song Dynasty. A glance at the Jin and Western Xia. In this period, thanks to easy politics and a relatively emancipated ideology, great achievements were obtained in various scientific technologies, theoretical trends, academic schools, religious thought, and literary creation, and the arts also showed an unprecedented prosperity. Science: Jade ware penetrated various aspects of social life, and its shapes, decorations, and patterns all showed a distinctive secularization. The invasion of northern nomads introduced a new cultural atmosphere to the Central Plains. The porcelain kilns could be found everywhere and finally developed into eight major systems: Dingyaozhou, Cizhou, Junyuezhou, Longquan, Jingdezhen, blueish-white porcelain, and Jian kilns. As well, there were four major royal kilns: Ru Kiln and Jun Kiln of the Northern Song Dynasty, Xiunesi Kiln, and Jiaotianxia Kiln of the Southern Dynasty. The arts of calligraphy and painting were typical representatives of the flourishing culture in the Song Dynasty. During this period, an imperial art academy was founded, enlisting folk artists, and a large number of professional painters were trained.

Calligraphers of the Northern and Southern Song Dynasties inherited previous styles but also emphasised the representation of the individual subjective will Other handicrafts developed gold and silver ware tended to be light handy and graceful In the Song Dynasty people has less costly funerals so less jade has been unearthed Those that have are in Sichuan Zhejiang and Jiangxis The emphasis is on practical utensils drinking vessels dress adornments and accessories At the same time there was progress in the technologies of jade carving layered piercing and large scale jade ware This book the sixth in a ten volume collection brings to the English speaking world a series of books from China which has been compiled by an Expert Committee of the Chinese Society of Cultural Relics There are 363 descriptions
