Young Effectuals:

Afriats Richard Bird Baker, 2010-11-24 This may be one of the most important books you will ever read It identifies defines describes analyzes and suggests actions to take toward a highly pervasive social phenomenon that social scientists should have recognized at least a century ago Somehow the social scientific community has always overlooked this phenomenon even though it affects if not envelops a large majority of people in modern society This phenomenon is likely one of the leading causes of frustration stress fatigue disappointment disillusionment depression unhappiness anger quarrels road rage violence substance abuse domestic abuse neurosis and perhaps even suicides in modern civilization This is the phenomenon of afriations Don t try to look that term up in any source other than this text It s a term the author had to coin for this concept which has yet to be academically identified Yet afriats are probably the most complained about topic of conversation and for tens of millions of Americans they cause some of our most dreaded problems With the simple understanding of afriations and a basic knowledge of how to interact with afriats we can avoid much of the stress and grief caused by afriations
