Young Hollywood:

Hollywood's America Stephen P Powers, 2018-02-19 American motion pictures still dominate the world market with an impact that is difficult to measure Their role in American culture has been a powerful one since the 1930s and is a hallmark of our culture today Though much has been written about the film industry there has been very little systematic attention paid to the ideology of its creative elite How does the outlook of that elite impact on the portrayals of America that appear on the screen How do their views interact with the demands of the market and the structure of the industry to determine the product that is seen by mass audiences Hollywood's America is a marvellously rich and careful discussion of these questions It combines a meticulous systematic content analysis of fifty years of top grossing films with a history of the changing structure of the industry To that mixture it adds an in depth survey of Hollywood's creative elite comparing them to other leadership groups The result is a balanced discussion of unique breadth and depth on a subject of national importance Placing the film industry in the context of American society as a whole the authors point out that Hollywood's creative leadership impacts the larger society even as it is influenced by that society The creators of films cannot remove themselves too far from the values of the audiences that they serve However the fact that films are made by a relatively small number of people who as the authors demonstrate tend to share a common outlook means that over time motion pictures have had an undeniable impact on the beliefs lifestyles and action of Americans This study contributes to the debate over the role and influence of those who create and distribute the products of mass culture in the United States The book also contains a devastating critique of the poststructuralist theories that currently dominate academic film criticism demonstrating how they fail in their attempt to explain the political significance of motion pictures Fourth Estate, 1925 Register University of California, Berkeley, 1926 Women in Hollywood's Dream Factory Karen McNally, 2026-03-17 Analyzing and challenging the film industry's infamous treatment of women The MeToo revelations put a twenty first century stamp on the age old story of women's mistreatment in Hollywood Karen McNally edits a collection focused on examining and revising film history in the aftermath of the women's stories past and present that have come to light The collection begins with essays on the interplay between reality and imagination in narratives and representations of women's experiences of unequal treatment In Part 2 contributors discuss how the gendered attitudes of the media's stories enable inequality in Hollywood and look at the forces that arise whenever women resist these media assaults The next section addresses the structures that built the inequalities and mistreatment while Part 4 revisits established narratives to challenge renew and expand upon our understanding of film history through women's stories Essays in the final section address the combination of inequality and resistance that defines women's experiences in Hollywood Piercing and astute Women in Hollywood's Dream Factory confronts our perception of Hollywood as a mythological land of dreams Contributors Alicia Byrnes Anna M Dempsey Harriet Fletcher Amanda Konkle Tamar Jeffers McDonald Kerry McElroy Adrienne L McLean Karen McNally Donna Peberdy Melanie Piper Victoria K
