survived Daniel Finkelstein's grandfather was a German Jewish intellectual leader who tolled an early warning of the impending Holocaust and became an archivist of Nazi crimes. He relocated his family to safety in Amsterdam where they knew Anne Frank. But in those years safety was an illusion. Anne Frank famously went into hiding and Daniel's mother Mirjam also still a child was sent to Bergen Belsen with her mother and sisters. Finkelstein's father Ludwik grew up in a prosperous Jewish family in Poland where his father Dolu was a patriotic hero of the Great War. But when Stalin took control Dolu was deported to Siberia and Ludwik and his mother were sentenced to forced labor in Kazakhstan, starved and housed in a stable in freezing conditions. Two Roads Home is a page turning account of the narrow escapes, forged passports, ingenuity, bravery and luck that allowed Mirjam and Ludwik to survive the war and find each other. Using their personal testimony, letters sent to Siberia, a diary written in Belsen and years of historical research, Daniel Finkelstein tells what happened to two families: one the victim of the Nazis, the other of the Soviets. A tale of deliverance and triumph over evil, Two Roads Home will profoundly touch all who read it.
