Office of Budget and Planning, 2024-05-10 The Executive Board of the International Monetary Fund approved the 2025 27 financial years FY25 27 medium term budget While the global economy has shown resilience to successive adverse shocks the overall global economic context remains complex with slow and uneven growth increased fragmentation deepening divergence and still high interest rates despite easing inflationary pressures Against this backdrop the FY25 27 budget continues to be guided by principles of agility and budget discipline reinforced by ongoing reprioritization and savings capture It also builds on strong cooperation with other institutions ensuring the Fund continues to focus on areas within its mandate even as it addresses new demands Work to strengthen internal operations also continue focusing on both efficiency and effectiveness in meeting changing needs in the post pandemic workplace where rapid technological changes are underway With significant demands within a constrained budget environment the budget reflects difficult tradeoffs

Foreign Direct Investment in Latin America and the Caribbean 2018 United Nations,2019-01-30 This publication sets out and analyses the main foreign direct investment FDI trends in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean In 2017 certain trends that had already emerged in the global economic landscape became more established In particular announcements of potential restrictions on trade and pressures to relocate production to developed countries were confirmed At the same time China has taken steps to restrict outflows of foreign direct investment FDI in order to align these flows with its strategic plan Adding to these factors is the expansion of digital technologies whose international expansion requires smaller investments in tangible assets Firms in these areas are heavily concentrated in the United States and China which reduces the need for cross border mergers and acquisitions
