Sipri Yearbook 2002:

SIPRI Yearbook 2002 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 2002 The Yearbook has unique collections of official documents concluded during the year in the field of arms control disarmament and international security 10 Years That Shook the World Loretta Napoleoni, 2011-09-06 September 11 2001 is considered the main event but the changes of the decade go far beyond the menace of terrorism and the war on terror The technological revolution the wide use of the Internet and the advent of social media are just some of the innovations that grew to define the decade The war on terror and its strong rhetoric hid these phenomena The purpose of this book is to show the true patterns of change those innovations that will influence coming decades This is more than a timeline it is the tale of an extraordinary decade Within each year Napoleoni presents events not in a strict chronology but more as we might remember them often with the most significant events recalled first Thus the main topics politics economics people technology and the environment cross over constantly showing how they are all interlinked and how globalization is speeding up the pace of change in our world The Arms Race in Asia Andrew T.H. Tan, 2013-12-13 This book is the first systematic examination of the emerging arms race in Asia The global trade in arms is to a large degree underpinned by the strong demand for arms in Asia and the Middle East the two largest arms export markets in the world Of these two regions Asia has become particularly significant led by the emergence of China and India as major powers It is therefore not surprising that the rapid military modernisation in Asia accompanied by significant increases in the size and sophistication of armed forces has generated attention as to its trends key characteristics causes and implications This phenomenon which has become evident since the end of the Cold War has also been widely described as an Asian arms race This book evaluates the key conceptual ideas which can shed light on this phenomenon as well as examining the complex mix of internal external and technological factors that have led to its emergence The volume explores the way in which the arms race is leading ultimately to three distinctive blocs in the emerging geostrategic landscape a loose bloc of US allies in the region a counter bloc of potential US adversaries and a neutral bloc of states with industrial age armed forces whose allegiances will vary according to circumstances and geostrategic developments The Arms Race in Asia concludes that if the emerging arms race is left unchecked it is likely that Asia will increasingly become a region of instability marked by conflicts and interstate wars The book will be of great interest to students of Asian politics strategic studies defence studies security studies and IR in general Strategic Partners Jeanne Wilson, 2015-06-11 Russia's foreign policy experience in the first post Soviet decade was marked by disappointments as well as surprising turns Expectations that Russia would join the Western powers as an equal partner were frustrated while relations with the People's Republic of China warmed considerably Today Russia's relationship with China is an important component of its overall foreign policy orientation as the two states one greatly diminished the other clearly on the rise have found themselves sharing an interest in curbing the power of the United States In analyzing Russia's evolving foreign policy vis a vis China the author takes into account the legacy of Soviet era precedents the simultaneous processes of economic policy change and integration into global economic structures and military relations By shedding light on the role of political realism decision makers and exogenous factors in Russian foreign policy this analysis of an important bilateral relationship contributes to the larger project of understanding international relations and the dynamics of domestic and foreign policy change
