Hand-Made Television R. Moseley,2016-04-29 Hand Made Television explores the ongoing enchantment of many of the much loved stop frame children s television programmes of 1960s and 1970s Britain The first academic work to analyse programmes such as Pogles Wood 1966 Clangers 1969 Bagpuss 1974 Smallfilms and Gordon Murray s Camberwick Green 1966 Trumpton 1967 and Chigley 1969 the book connects these series to their social and historical contexts while providing in depth analyses of their themes and hand made aesthetics Hand Made Television shows that the appeal of these programmes is rooted not only in their participatory address and evocation of a pastoral English past but also in the connection of their stop frame aesthetics to the actions of childhood play This book makes a significant contribution to both Animation Studies and Television Studies combining scholarly rigour with an accessible style it is suitable for scholars as well as fans of these iconic British children s programmes

Dictionary of British Comic Artists, Writers and Editors Alan Clark,1998 Alan Clark a leading historian and collector of comics has been in the forefront of research in this field and in the quest for factual information over the last twenty five years he has been pursuing artists and editors or their heirs while persuading publishers to open up their archives The compiler is also grateful for the fact that he had the work of other diligent researchers and collectors to draw upon The result is this pioneering biographical dictionary covering the period from 1867 to 1997 in which the cloak of anonymity is stripped from hundreds of pen and ink men The dictionary entries describe in succinct detail the professional lives and careers of their subjects together with the characters they created and the publications for which they worked The author hopes and intends that the information will be used as a basis for further research
