Sitting in the Flames Dr. John Edwin DeVore,2014-11-12 As reviewed by New York Times best selling author Ellen Tanner Marsh In clear heartfelt prose DeVore describes a brave and unflinching confrontation with his past made necessary in order for him to have a more meaningful future War he realized isnt just one mans experienceits the sum total experience of an entire country To stop wars he argues we must understand them and why we seem to need them The gut wrenching brutality experienced by American soldiers in Vietnam was for many the beginning of a lifelong personal struggle Unlike many veterans who were unable to cope after returning to civilian life John DeVore moved with facility from success as an Army officer to success in corporate America Nevertheless like many other veterans the war haunted DeVore and finally in a process he narrates in this book compelled him to make a commitment to free himself and our country from the addiction to war
