Situated Fathering A Focus On Physical :

Situated Fathering William Marsiglio, Kevin Roy, Greer Litton Fox, 2005-07-28 When men act as parents they do so in diverse physical and social spaces imbued with symbolic meaning They father in the military overseas on the farm in dilapidated inner cities immersed in ethnic neighborhoods navigating idealized places of leisure where families go as stepfathers in spaces where physical dimensions and family meanings intersect as nonresident fathers managing less than ideal conditions rolling across the interstate as long haul truckers playing catch alongside the house managing precious family time in prison work release programs as participants in community fatherhood initiatives etc Until now family scholars had not explicitly theorized and focused on how physical space shapes fathers lives A distinct volume of theoretical and empirical research Situated Fathering addresses this oversight by proposing a new framework for studying how various contingencies of physical space in conjunction with social symbolic issues affect men s identities as fathers and their involvement with children Consistent with public interest in men s efforts to be there as providers and caregivers this book explores issues associated with the barriers and supports to involvement that are part of the physical and social environment Written largely for family scholars and students it emphasizes a future oriented perspective by outlining directions for theoretically guided research in specific often gendered fathering sites

Situated Fathering William Marsiglio, Kevin Roy, Greer Litton Fox, 2005 Situated Fathering proposes a new theoretical framework for studying how various contingencies of physical space in conjunction with social symbolic issues affect men s identities as fathers and their involvement with children Written largely for family scholars and students by an interdisciplinary team of leading scholars this distinct volume of original research explores fathers in a wide range of physical and social spaces Contributors outline directions for theoretically guided research in specific often gendered fathering sites Visit our website for sample chapters

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Gary W. Peterson, Kevin R. Bush, 2012-09-14 The third edition of Handbook of Marriage and the Family describes analyzes synthesizes and critiques the current research and theory about family relationships family structural variations and the role of families in society This updated Handbook provides the most comprehensive state of the art assessment of the existing knowledge of family life with particular attention to variations due to gender socioeconomic race ethnic cultural and life style diversity The Handbook also aims to provide the best synthesis of our existing scholarship on families that will be a primary source for scholars and professionals but also serve as the primary graduate text for graduate courses on family relationships and the roles of families in society In addition the involvement of chapter authors from a variety of fields including family psychology family sociology child development family studies public health and family therapy gives the Handbook a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary framework

Fatherhood in Late Modernity Mechthild Oechsle, Ursula Müller, Sabine Hess, 2012-08-09 Changes in Fatherhood How do structural changes in the welfare state in gender relations and work affect concepts and realities of fatherhood The authors analyse cultural images and representations of fatherhood varieties of fatherhood in relation to social backgrounds organisational influences as well as the impact of political and legal interventions on configurations of fatherhood With an interdisciplinary approach this book's contributions investigate the sometimes contradictory relationship between cultural representations and social practices of fatherhood They contextualise diverse fatherhoods in various social backgrounds ethnicities ages and different national contexts Reflecting methodological challenges is crucial to the volume's approach Which parameters are used to quantify change Which links and interactions between cultural individual organizational and societal dimensions do exist regarding the development of new social configurations of fatherhood How can the complex interaction between structural constraints and agency be analysed Can certain agents of change be identified How can social change be conceptualized This volume links to international comparative research and shows how fruitful it can be to break disciplinary boundaries The Oxford Handbook of Poverty and Child Development Valerie Maholmes, Rosalind B. King, Ph.D., 2012-05-21 Comprehensive and integrative The Oxford Handbook of Poverty and Child Development describes the contextual and social ecology of children living in poverty and illuminates the biological and behavioral interactions that either promote optimal development or that place children at risk of having poor developmental outcomes

Fragmenting Fatherhood Richard Collier, Sally Sheldon, 2008-09 Debates about the future of fatherhood have been central to a range of conversations about changing family forms parenting and society Law has served an important yet often neglected role in these discussions serving as an important focal point for broader political frustrations playing a central role in mediating disputes and operating as a significant symbolic state sanctioned account of the scope of paternal rights and responsibilities Fragmenting Fatherhood provides the first sustained engagement with the way that fatherhood has been understood constructed and regulated within English law Drawing on a range of disparate legal provisions and material from diverse disciplines it sketches the major contours of the figure of the father as drawn in law and social policy tracing shifts in legal and broader understandings of what it means to be a father and what rights and obligations should accrue to that status In thematically linked chapters cutting across substantive areas of law the book locates fatherhood as a key site of contestation within broader political debates regarding the family and gender equality Multiple visions of fatherhood evolving unevenly over time across diverse areas of law emerge from this analysis Fatherhood is revealed as an essentially fragmented status and one which is intertwined in complex ways with the legal cultural and political contexts in which discourses of parenthood are produced Fragmenting Fatherhood provides an important and unique resource speaking to debates about fatherhood across a range of fields including law and legal theory sociology gender studies social policy marriage and the family women's studies and gender studies

Men in the Lives of Young Children Deborah Jones, Roy Evans, 2013-09-13 This book presents an international perspective on the involvement of men in the lives of young children across a range of differing contexts and from a number of disciplinary perspectives It takes as a starting point the importance of positive male engagement with young children so as to ensure their optimal development Past research has revealed however the complexity of studying these relationships and the barriers that exist in families society which impede the implementation of positive relationships This book is developed to use new research and educational thinking in order to explore the lived experiences of both fathers and men in education and in addition to considers what it is to be a man in the 21st century As such this work is pertinent timely and responsive to issues of concern to all those professionals policy makers and practitioners within education and family services and also to the public in general The central purpose of the book is to contribute to the debate around key issues connected to the ways in which men can develop secure professional and familial attachments to young children for whom they have a responsibility This book was published as a special issue of Early Child Development and Care Men on a Mission William Marsiglio,2008-04-28 The first comprehensive study of men who work and volunteer with kids in a variety of public settings this book brings to life diverse histories and experiences of men who have worked as coaches teachers youth ministers probation officers Big Brothers Boys Girls Club staff 4 H agents and the like Drawing on in depth interviews with men between the ages of 19 and 65 ethnographic observations and more than twenty years of research on fathers sociologist Marsiglio explores men s motives for doing youth work effective interpersonal strategies the perception and expression of mentoring the mutual influences that youth work and fathering have on each other the youth workers own personal development and the impact of social policy and programmatic initiatives He offers a forward looking vision for getting men more involved and involved more productively in helping kids thrive From publisher description Journal of Comparative Family Studies ,2007 Slow Motion L.
