Six French Poets Of Our Time:

Six French Poets of Our Time Robert W. Greene, 2015-03-08 During the last sixty to seventy years avant garde poetry in France has evolved in two directions one toward poetry conceived as a means to an end the other toward poetry as an end in itself Focusing on Pierre Reverdy Francis Ponge Ren Char Andr du Bouchet Jacques Dupin and Marcelin Pleynet as the modern French poets who most faithfully reflect these directions Robert Greene s chronological study allows us to follow the two pronged evolution of French poetry since 1910 Situating his argument in a detailed historical context and basing it on comparisons with artistic movements and the poets own writings on art and on extended analyses of selected representative poems the author is able to establish a new intellectual historical perspective on contemporary poetry Professor Greene finds that whereas Reverdy Char du Bouchet and Dupin all embrace a conception of poetry as quest as a search for the absolute as the Way of beauty or truth Ponge and Pleynet hold to a view of poetry as j te as a celebration of the relative as the play and display of language in action What knits them together he concludes is the way in which each poet sums up his era as a stage in the development of twentieth century French poetry Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Six

Contemporary French Poetics Michael Bishop, Christopher Elson, 2002 Contemporary French Poetics finds its origin in part in the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University in September 1998 A certain number of the papers given at that time and since reworked in some fair measure take their place here alongside other studies subsequently invited In all they form a broad and varyingly focused set of cogent and pertinent appraisals of very recent French and to some degree francophone poetic practice and its shifting becoming conceptual underpinnings Studies offered range from those devoted to the work of established contemporary figures such as Bonnefoy and Du Bouchet St ti and Deguy No l and Chedid to discussions of younger generation writing by poets as diverse as Pinson and Leclair Bancquart and Emaz Maulpoix and Despr s Morency and Zins All center however upon work essentially produced over the last ten years
