Free Expression, Globalism, and the New Strategic Communication Monroe E. Price, 2014-12-15 Vast changes in technologies and geopolitics have produced a wholesale shift in the way states and other powerful entities think about the production and retention of popular loyalties Strategic communication has embraced these changes as stakes increase and the techniques of information management become more pervasive These shifts in strategic communications impact free speech as major players in a global context rhetorically embrace a world of transparency all the while increasing surveillance and modes of control turning altered media technologies and traditional media doctrines to their advantage This book exposes the anxieties of loss of control on the one hand and the missed opportunities for greater freedom on the other New strategic communication arises from the vast torrents of information that cross borders and uproot old forms of regulation Not only states but also corporations nongovernmental organizations religious institutions and others have become part of this new constellation of speakers and audiences

Electronic Iran Niki Akhavan, 2013-12-25 Electronic Iran introduces the concept of the Iranian Internet a framework that captures interlinked transnational networks of virtual and offline spaces Taking her cues from early Internet ethnographies that stress the importance of treating the Internet as both a site and product of cultural production accounts in media studies that highlight the continuities between old and new media and a range of works that have made critical interventions in the field of Iranian studies Niki Akhavan traces key developments and confronts conventional wisdom about digital media in general and contemporary Iranian culture and politics in particular Akhavan focuses largely on the years between 1998 and 2012 to reveal a diverse and combative virtual landscape where both geographically and ideologically dispersed individuals and groups deployed Internet technologies to variously construct defend and challenge narratives of Iranian national identity society and politics While it tempers celebratory claims that have dominated assessments of the Iranian Internet Electronic Iran is ultimately optimistic in its outlook As it exposes and assesses overlooked aspects of the Iranian Internet the book sketches a more complete map of its dynamic landscape and suggests that the transformative powers of digital media can only be developed and understood if attention is paid to both the specificities of new technologies as well as the local and transnational contexts in which they appear

The South Vs. the South William W. Freehling,2001 Why did the Confederacy lose the Civil War Most historians point to the larger number of Union troops for example or the North s greater industrial might Now in The South Vs the South one of America s leading authorities on the Civil War era offers an entirely new answer to this question William Freehling argues that anti Confederate Southerners specifically border state whites and southern blacks helped cost the Confederacy the war White men in such border states as Missouri Kentucky and Maryland Freehling points out were divided in their loyalties but far more joined the Union army or simply stayed home than marched off in Confederate gray If they had enlisted as rebel troops in the same proportion as white men did farther south their numbers would have offset all the Confederate casualties during four years of war In addition when those states stayed loyal the vast majority of the South s urban population and industrial capacity remained in Union hands And many forget Freehling writes that the slaves own decisions led to a series of white decisions culminating in the Emancipation Proclamation that turned federal forces into an army of liberation depriving the South of labor and adding essential troops to the blue ranks Whether revising our conception of slavery or of Abraham Lincoln or establishing the antecedents of Martin

Luther King or analyzing Union military strategy or uncovering new meanings in what is arguably America's greatest piece of sculpture Augustus St Gaudens Shaw Memorial Freehling writes with piercing insight and rhetorical verve Concise and provocative The South Vs the South will forever change the way we view the Civil War The Sketch ,1917 The Black Diamond ,1918 Hotel Monthly ,1919 In Search of Myself Hans Natonek,1943 The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend ,1889 The new Popular educator ,1901 Federal Tax Service ,1927 Natural History of Animals Sanborn Tenney,1895 The Dramatic Works of Sir William D'Avenant William D'Avenant,1872
