Taxation in Modern China Donald J. S. Brean, 2013-10-23 Taxation in Modern China is concerned with tax and public financial issues arising in China's economic transition. Bernstein, Xiaobo Lü, 2003-03-27 This book provides the first in-depth English study of the tax burden problems farmers face in China.

Rural Politics in Contemporary China Emily T. Yeh, Kevin O'Brien, Jingzhong Ye, 2016-01-22 This collection provides an overview of China's rural politics, bringing scholarship on agrarian politics from various social science disciplines together in one place. The twelve contributions, spanning history, anthropology, sociology, environmental studies, political science, and geography, address enduring questions in peasant studies, including the relationship between states and peasants, taxation, social movements, rural-urban linkages, land rights and struggles, gender relations, and environmental politics. Taking rural politics as the power-inflected processes and struggles that shape access and control over resources in the countryside, as well as the values, ideologies, and discourses that shape those processes, the volume brings research on China into conversation with the traditions and concerns of peasant studies scholarship. It provides both an introduction to those unfamiliar with Chinese politics, as well as in-depth new research for experts in the field. This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies. The Guangdong Model and Taxation in China Jin-A Kang, 2025-10-01 This book explores the formation, development, and characteristics of modern China's finance, focusing especially on Guangdong province as a case study to illustrate both the macro-level trends and the micro-level reality. The chronological range of this book is mainly from the late Qing period to the early Republican Era, ending in 1937 when the full-scale Second Sino-Japanese War broke out. After the concept of modern finance was introduced to China for the first time in the late Qing period, the efforts to build modern finance continued in the Republican Era, both nationally and locally. But this process was interrupted by the outbreak of the war against Japan in 1937 and, having been derailed, did not subsequently recover due to the subsequent civil war between the Kuomintang and the Chinese Communist Party. This interrupted process of financial modernization was resumed with Reform and Opening up, launched in 1978. Therefore, in order to illustrate the structural transformation and persistent characteristics of China's fiscal system this book also includes discussions of the early Qing period and current Chinese finance Improving the Tax System amid the Rule-of-Law China Qiao Wang, Weiqun Xi, 2022-01-15 This book discusses China's tax system presenting a comprehensive and systematic research based on a multidisciplinary approach involving economics finance political science sociology law public administration history and econometrics With China moving toward the rule of law this book proposes reforms to the tax laws and the stratified governance with a view to achieving tax neutrality law based taxation tax equality and tax burden stability It focuses on clarifying the implications extension nature and features of a law based tax system as well as the logical relationships between the optimization of the tax system structure modern governance law based tax administration as well as the tax sharing system of tax collection and the rule of tax law It suggests that optimizing the tax structure reforming the tax sharing system improving local taxes and restructuring the tax collection and management system will push China's tax system toward sound design and rule of law This book is intended for scholars specializing in China's tax system and general readers interested in China's economy Contemporary China Review [2024 Spring/Summer Issue] Journal Editors, 2024-07-25 As the Year 2024 has already passed half I sincerely hope and pray for world peace and for people to live and work in peace But looking ahead I believe the future will still not be peaceful The Russian Ukrainian war is still raging and the people are suffering The Israeli Hamas conflict seems to have no signs of stopping and the US election is surging As I said before the three major divisions facing the world are presented at the same time this year the Russian Ukrainian war is a major division between the democratic and dictatorial camps the US election is a major left right division and the Israeli Hamas conflict has surpassed the left right division and the democracy dictatorship division Is the world heading for doomsday We wait and see Force and Contention in Contemporary China Ralph Thaxton, 2016-08-08 This book shows how memories of Mao era suffering drive popular resistance to state power in authoritarian China China's Tax Reform Options Trish Fulton, Jinyan Li, Dianqing Xu, 1998-10-30 China is now facing the challenge of designing and carrying out new reforms of its taxation system This book covers a wide range of topics critical to China's future tax reform Several prominent scholars and government officials have contributed papers which range from general tax issues to specific problem areas in tax policy design implementation and legislation in China The collaborative efforts between the Chinese and foreign scholars combine first hand knowledge of the current situation of China's tax reform with modern economic theory and methodology and highlight key issues which are the focus of research on China's tax system today Several papers also examine the linkages between tax reform and reforms in other areas in China such as monetary and housing reforms thus giving a more complete picture of the task ahead Modern China's Economy and Management Hong Ma, 1990 China Monthly Review, 1922 Research on the Laws of Contemporary China Volume 2 Chen Su, 2018-03-31 Explore the evolution of Chinese jurisprudence from 1978 to 1992 This non fiction examines the transformation of China's legal system during a
