Musorgsky David Brown, 2010-05-14 Modest Musorgsky was one of the towering figures of nineteenth century Russian music Now in this new volume in the Master Musicians series David Brown gives us the first life and works study of Musorgsky to appear in English for over a half century Indeed this is the largest such study of Musorgsky to have appeared outside Russia Brown shows how Musorgsky though essentially an amateur with no systematic training in composition emerged in his first opera Boris Godunov as a supreme musical dramatist Indeed in this opera and in certain of his piano pieces in Pictures at an Exhibition Musorgsky produced some of the most startlingly novel music of the whole nineteenth century He was also one of the most original of all song composers with a prodigious gift for uncovering the emotional content of a text As Brown illuminates Musorgsky s work he also paints a detailed portrait of the composer s life He describes how unlike the systematic and disciplined Tchaikovsky Musorgsky was a fitful composer When the inspiration was upon him he could apply himself with superhuman intensity as he did when composing the initial version of Boris Godunov Sadly Musorgsky deteriorated in his final years suffering periods of inner turmoil when his alcoholism would be out of control Finally unemployed and all but destitute he died at age forty two His failure to complete his two remaining operas Khovanshchina and Sorochintsy Fair Brown concludes is one of music s greatest tragedies

Written by one of the leading authorities on nineteenth century Russian composers Musorgsky is the finest available biography of this giant of Russian music
