opening disappeared in front of Phillipa's eyes under the skilled hands of a stonemason. No one would suspect that the Sphinx had been tampered with. One by one the Tuareg torchbearers rode up the passage between the mighty paws of the Sphinx and dropped their torches in front of the Heidrichs' secret burial chamber, a final salute to the man who had translated their tablets. That night they slept outside under the stars. The matriarch's stallion came to greet Phillipa. She rubbed his forehead and velvety nose and then kissed it as she had done long ago when she had been here with Udah Singh. He likes you and wishes you well, said the matriarch behind her. You have a gift with horses that I have not seen before. She continued. You still love both equally and that confuses you profoundly. Give yourself permission to love and be loved. Don't let conventions and western customs dictate your life. Live happy and free.
