The Great American Housing Bubble Adam J. Levitin, Susan M. Wachter, 2020-06-09 The definitive account of the housing bubble that caused the Great Recession and earned Wall Street fantastic profits The American housing bubble of the 2000s caused the worst global financial crisis since the Great Depression In this definitive account Adam Levitin and Susan Wachter pinpoint its source the shift in mortgage financing from securitization by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac to private label securitization by Wall Street banks This change set off a race to the bottom in mortgage underwriting standards as banks competed in laxity to gain market share The Great American Housing Bubble tells the story of the transformation of mortgage lending from a dysfunctional local affair featuring short term interest only bullet loans to a robust national market based around the thirty year fixed rate mortgage a uniquely American innovation that served as the foundation for the middle class Levitin and Wachter show how Fannie and Freddie s market power kept risk in check until 2003 when mortgage financing shifted sharply to private label securitization as lenders looked for a way to sustain lending volume following an unprecedented refinancing wave Private label securitization brought a return of bullet loans which had lower initial payments enabling borrowers to borrow more but much greater back loaded risks These loans produced a vast oversupply of underpriced mortgage finance that drove up home prices unsustainably When the bubble burst it set off a destructive downward spiral of home prices and foreclosures Levitin and Wachter propose a rebuild of the housing finance system that ensures the widespread availability of the thirty year fixed rate mortgage while preventing underwriting competition and shifting risk away from the public to private investors

Housing America in the 1980s John S. Adams, 1988-05-16 Housing provides shelter in a variety of forms but it is also resonant with meaning on many other levels as a financial asset a status symbol an expression of private aspirations and identities a means of inclusion or exclusion and finally as a battleground for social change John Adams impressive new study explores this complex topic in all its dimensions Using census data and other housing surveys Adams describes the recent history of housing in America the nature of housing supply and demand patterns of housing use and selected housing policy questions Adams supplements this national and regional analysis with a remarkable set of small area analyses revealing how neighborhood settings affect housing use and how market forces and other trends interact to shape a neighborhood These analyses focus on a sample of over fifty urbanized areas including the nation s three largest cities New York Los Angeles and Chicago Special two color maps illustrate the dynamics of housing use in each of these communities Clearly and insightfully this volume paints a unique picture of the American housing landscape a landscape that reflects and regulates significant aspects of our national life A Volume in the Russell Sage Foundation Census Series American Artisan, Tinner and House Furnisher Daniel Stern,1916 Official History of the Junior Order United American Mechanics and American Landmarks Junior Order United American Mechanics,1897 Annual Report of the American Railway Master Mechanics' Association American Railway Master Mechanics' Association,1873 The American House Carpenter Robert Griffith Hatfield,1880 American Housing, a Macro View Ko Ching Shih,1990 Bulletin of the Pan American Union Pan American Union,1940 The Franklin Journal, and American Mechanics' Magazine ,1872 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
