The E Generation:

Sinascapes Gary G. Xu, 2006-12-21 Sinascapes Contemporary Chinese Cinema is one of the most comprehensive studies of transnational Chinese language films at the turn of the millennium Gary Xu combines a close reading of contemporary movies from China Taiwan and Hong Kong with an intimate look into the transnational Chinese film industry based on his working relationship with filmmakers He coins the word sinascapes to reflect on the intersection between Chinese cinema and global cultural production referring to cinematic representations of ethnic Chinese people around the globe Sinascapes describes contemporary Chinese cinema as a global network and a group of contact zones where ideologies clash new identities emerge through both border crossings and resistance to globalization and visual innovations and progressive visions become possible General readers film enthusiasts and critics alike will benefit from Xu's discussion of popular film which leads to a broader conversation about China's economic transformations global politics and cultural production Including discussion of films like Hero House of Flying Daggers Kung Fu Hustle Devils on the Doorstep Suzhou River Beijing Bicycle Millennium Mambo Goodbye Dragon Inn and Hollywood Hong Kong the book emphasizes the transnational nature of contemporary Chinese cinema

Learning and the E-Generation Jean D. M. Underwood, Lee Farrington-Flint, 2015-02-16 Learning and the E Generation examines the impact of new and emerging digital technologies from computers and tablets to social media and video games on learners in formal and informal settings Assesses the psychological factors at play including social cognitive and behavioral characteristics that are influenced by exposure to technology Addresses the risks and benefits of 21st century digital technology on children and young adults Written by two experts in the field who draw on the latest research and practice from psychology neuroscience and education Discusses the potential of technology to make the learning process more authentic and engaging as well as the obstacles which can prevent this from happening effectively

Free Mother to Good Home Kay Taylor, 2011-11-14 Have you heard the words I never dared to treat my parents the way kids do today If you are a baby boomer or the parent of a tween teen or adult child not only have you heard those words you may have uttered them yourself If in this new age of childparent relations you've ever felt like a helpless puppy or kitten inside a box marked Free to Good Home if in spite of all your love and the care with which you embraced parenting your child has grown into an entitled and thoughtless power broker in your relationship read on Author Kay Taylor has studied sociology parenting blended families and personal growth for years in this bold groundbreaking book she explores the changes in our culture that she believes have given birth to what she describes as the E generation a generation of teens and young adults that feel so empowered and entitled that they often clash with their parents creating a palpable power struggle within the family This often leaves good parents alone depressed and completely befuddled as to what they did wrong Free Mother to Good Home comes from the heart and experiences of an everyday parent in the trenches Taylor offers a mother's perspective as well as a remedy for parental blues helping parents know what they can do to get their houses and their lives
