The Russians How They Live And Work:

The Russians William Henry Parker, 1973 Migrant Resettlement in the Russian Federation Moya Flynn, 2004 This timely book offers a unique insight into the individual and collective experiences of movement and resettlement among Russian migrants returning to the Russian Federation over the period 1991-2002. Moya Flynn uses different levels of analysis: local, regional, national, and global to open up fresh perspectives on the nature of the Russian migration regime and government migration policy. The book offers the first in-depth examination of non-governmental development in the area of migration in post-Soviet Russia and provides new understandings of the experience of migration and resettlement at the individual level, specifically through an exploration of understandings of home and homeland and a focus on the role of migrant networks.
