of photography video and film by contemporary British artists The works reveal a potent and at times exotic world where truth is often more curious than fiction and where fiction is made more powerful through fact The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000 Fresh, Fresher Jane Simpson,Clare Manchester,2002 Fresh Fresher is a monograph on the work of British artist Jane Simpson It is a celebration of her career since 1992 when while still a student she first experimented with the use of ice and her now trademark refrigeration technique Rather than following a strict chronological order the book surveys Simpson s work thematically punctuated by three critical texts An introduction by Royal Academy Exhibitions Secretary Norman Rosenthal and essays by the Director of Kunsthalle D sseldorf Ulrike Groos and Mark Godfrey of the Slade School of Art London place the artist s work in a broader art historical context By positioning the pieces in abstract perspectives of vivid colour the book s design accentuates the pastel tones and shades that as in her rubber casts of kitchen utensils or photographs of Tupperware Simpson characteristically uses in her work Fresh Fresher takes its title from Simpson s sculpture of a pair of vases with roses in different stages of bloom a work she based around two paintings by Italian painter Giorgio Morandi A variation on the classical tradition of still life this piece 2000 exemplifies the underlying themes invariably present in the artist s work to date the process of appropriation and transformation and the dialectics of decay and renewal Abstrakt - real ,1996
