The Welsh Guards:

History of the Welsh Guards Charles Humble Dudley Ward,1920 The Welsh Guards John Retallack,HRH The Prince of Wales,1981-02-20 Although the youngest of the Regiments in the Household Division the Welsh Guards have established a reputation on both the battlefield and on the parade ground that is fully equal to the proud standards for which Guardsmen have long been famous The Welsh Guards were formed in 1915 and they saw much hard fighting in both World Wars Of the first thirty years of their existence almost a third were spent at war and as a result tradition and regimental spirit were quickly forged Such is the variety of a modern soldier s life that in the years since the Second World War the Welsh Guards have been employed in sixteen different countrys in some of them two or three times as diverse as texas and the snows of artic Norway This swift account takes their story from the regiment s foundation in 1915 from their baptism of fire at loos through another World War and on to the tragic business of trying to preserve lives and some sort of life in the internecine bitterness of Northern Ireland History of the Welsh Guards C. H. Dudley Ward,2016-08-17 The destruction of the British Expeditionary Force in 1914 called for new regiments to be formed The Welsh Guards was one of these regiments On 26 February 1915 King George V approved the creation of a Welsh Regiment of Foot Guards Within a month the Company Colours and their uniform details were settled They immediately began training In August 1915 the Welsh Guards sailed to France to fight on the Western Front Times were hard and the regiment s first test was the Battle of Loos the first major action of the war to use the new Kitchener s men Captain Dudley Ward served in the Welsh Regiment His historical account of the men who fought through the battles tells the story of the hardships encountered and the courage and determination these men showed Four years of war are retold in compelling detail Captain Dudley Ward thoroughly captures the sequence of events that unfolded providing a detailed regimental history of the Welsh Guards during the First World War Captain Dudley Ward b 1879 1945 was the author of many regimental histories including The Fifty Sixth Division 1914 1918 The 74th Yeomanry Division In Syria And France and Regimental Records of the Royal Welch Fusiliers Vol III 1914 1918 History of the Welsh Guards Charles Humble Dudley Ward,2001 Welsh Guards at War Lionel Frederic Ellis,1946 Bogen f lger her regimentet The Welsh Guards og dets indsats under 2 Verdenskrig History of the Welsh Guards C H 1879- Dudley Ward,2015-08-22 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important

H. (Charles Humble) 187 Dudley Ward,2016-08-26 History of the Welsh Guards (Classic Reprint) C. H. Dudley Ward,2015-07-11 Excerpt from History of the Welsh Guards It is the lot of few regiments as it is of few great men or women to have the story of their birth and early years written by a contemporary hand We all know how difficult it is to prove events even within our own times and therefore the nearer we get to them the more unlikely it is that they recede into the realm of fiction The Welsh Guards have this advantage and seeing that their inception took place during a great war it is all the more important that their advent should be set down clearly and by one who was present I had the advantage of being present and assisting at the birth and no one can be better qualified than Major C H Dudley Ward D S O M C to carry on the story with its bapteme de feu and glorious exploits in the subsequent years of war It had been the unanimous wish of the Welsh people than whom none are more noted for their loyalty to the Crown that the Principality should take its place among the nations of the British Isles in finding a regiment to assist in guarding the Throne King George V gave expression to this sentiment and to his own wishes on February 6th 1915 by commanding Field Marshal Earl Kitchener K G then Secretary of State for War to put His Majesty s orders into execution Accordingly as I was commanding the London District I was sent for by the Field Marshal and ordered to raise a battalion immediately On my asking Lord Kitchener how soon he expected this to be done he replied in his usual abrupt manner In a week My answer was They shall go on guard on St David s Day and they Did About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Welsh Guards at War By L F Ellis,2005-11 History of the Welsh Guards.
