style and structure the volume also explores the ways in which these much loved films engage with notions of masculinity and gender roles capitalism and community as well as racial and sexual identity Authors also examine how Ford's sound era Westerns create a complex relationship to the genre's traditional project of defining an American nation and how they uphold up but also question popular culture depictions of history and nationhood to offer a commentary that engages with both the past the present and the future In addition to new scholarship the volume also offers a dossier section of out of the way magazine articles that illuminate the issues raised by essays including the director's tribute to John Wayne as well as a moving posthumous appraisal of the director published by the Director's Guild of America

The Lost Worlds of John Ford Jeffrey Richards,2020 The great director John Ford 1894-1973 is best known for classic westerns but his body of work encompasses much more than this single genre Jeffrey Richards develops and broadens our understanding of Ford's film making oeuvre by studying his non-Western films through the lens of Ford's life and abiding preoccupations Ford's other cinematic worlds included Ireland the Family Catholicism War and the Sea which share with his westerns the recurrent themes of memory and loss the plight of outsiders and the tragedy of family breakup Richards revisionist study both provides new insights into familiar films such as The Fugitive 1947 The Quiet Man 1952 Gideon's Way and The Informer 1935 and reclaims neglected masterpieces among them Wee Willie Winkie 1937 and the extraordinary The Long Voyage Home 1940

The Western Film Review Chuck Lewis,2004-09-20 With this collection of reviews fans of western movies can enjoy taking another special look at some of our favorites with western author Chuck Lewis as he offers us insight and a unique view of the films we like or even those we don't like We might remember some of them with a nostalgia that doesn't match up with what the movie was all about We think we know the stories or what a good job of acting our heroes did or perhaps gave no thought to the symbolism of the roles they played but maybe Chuck can suggest something different The storylines of these movies are told here in detail and interspersed with appropriate and interesting observations You will definitely learn while being entertained Most of these reviews are written with Chuck's subtle sense of humor but all are informative and surprising at times They offer interesting facts that never occurred to us when we first saw the movie but all are honestly assessed with a bite that only Chuck Lewis can give us Movies reviewed in Volume One Shane Winchester 73 Red River Conagher Will Penny Monte Walsh The Naked Spur High Noon River of No Return The Unforgiven The Big Country Cowboy Stagecoach The Wonderful Country My Darling Clementine Monte Walsh TV Jeremiah Johnson The Magnificent Seven The Wild Bunch Tombstone Blood on the Moon The Searchers Colorado Territory The Bravados
