writers Ernest Thompson Seton a renowned naturalist and illustrator and Grace Gallatin Seton a women s suffrage leader who received medals for her volunteer work in France during World War I The pair s literary output gave them enduring fame but as a teenager Ann explicitly rejected her parents careers because she said they showed her the drudgery of a writer s life Still she was always confident that she had inherited her parents talent At age thirty six and self renamed Anya she placed her first novel with a major publisher Anya the author was protective of her private life yet also mused I suppose I write myself over and over again in the heroines of her books She reinvented herself within carefully researched historical settings and biographical frameworks that provided both escape and wish fulfillment Through Seton s own journal entries letters and self analyses MacKethan provides an intimate study of what it meant to her to be a writer She details Seton s creative process as well as the difficulties she faced balancing writing with the duties of homemaking and raising three children and the gratitude or more often frustration she felt toward editors and reviewers A compelling portrait emerges of a deeply dedicated writer whose life was full of inner turmoil most of it self inflicted *The Winthrop Woman.
