The World Of Labour

George D. H. Cole

The World Of Labour:

The World of Labour G. Cole,2010-11-01 Cole saw the trade unions as being critical to progress but to realise their role they needed to change and the issue of trade union structure therefore became fundamental He considered in this volume that trade union structure was a central problem of the labour movement he described British trade unionism as a movement bereft of ideas and policy He discusses the evolution in the trade unions to cover not only wages and working conditions but the organisation and control of industry
