The Wpa Guide To Texas With A New Introduction:

The WPA Guide to Texas, 1986      The 1929 Bunion Derby Charles B. Kastner, 2014-03-31 On March 31 1929 seventy seven men began an epic 3 554 mile footrace across America that pushed their bodies to the breaking point Nicknamed the Bunion Derby by the press this was the second and last of two trans America footraces held in the late 1920s The men averaged forty six gut busting miles a day during seventy eight days of nonstop racing that took them from New York City to Los Angeles Among this group two brilliant runners Johnny Salo of Passaic New Jersey and Pete Gavuzzi of England emerged to battle for the 25 000 first prize along the mostly unpaved roads of 1929 America with each man pushing the other to go faster as the lead switched back and forth between them To pay the prize money race director Charley Pyle cobbled together a traveling vaudeville company complete with dancing debutantes an all girl band wearing pilot outfits and blackface comedians all housed under the massive show tent that Pyle hoped would pack in audiences Kastner s engrossing account often told from the perspective of the participants evokes the remarkable physical challenge the runners experienced and clearly bolsters the argument that the last Bunion Derby was the greatest long distance footrace of all time      Historic Buildings of Waco, Texas Kenneth Hafertepe, 2023-12-14 Community life takes place in the spaces where business is transacted where worship and fellowship take place where goods and services are purchased where students are educated and where working and professional people ply their trades In Historic Buildings of Waco Texas architectural historian Kenneth Hafertepe delves into the stories behind 90 such structures in Waco discussing their original and current day purposes the individuals associated with them and their context within the architecture of the city and state As with his previous award winning books Hafertepe has investigated archives city directories public records and other sources to uncover fascinating details about the architects builders merchants educators and others whose work gave these buildings shape and substance and whose use gave them life He discusses the styles sketches the historical circumstances surrounding the buildings and their occupants and actualizes the social commercial spiritual and educational enrichment these structures housed and facilitated Churches synagogues skyscrapers banks filling stations and even the famous silos that now mark the location of Magnolia Market made famous by the television series Fixer Uppers all factor into Hafertepe s scholarly and entertaining treatment accompanied by rich full color photography      Global West, American Frontier David M. Wrobel, 2013-10-15 This thoughtful examination of a century of travel writing about the American West overturns a variety of popular and academic stereotypes Looking at both European and American travelers accounts of the West from de Tocqueville s Democracy in America to William Least Heat Moon s Blue Highways David Wrobel offers a counter narrative to the nation s romantic entanglement with its western past and suggests the importance of some long overlooked authors lively and perceptive witnesses to our history who deserve new attention Prior to the professionalization of academic disciplines the reading public gained much of its knowledge about the world from travel writing Travel writers found a wide and respectful audience for their reports on history geography and the natural world in addition to reporting on aboriginal cultures before the advent of anthropology as a discipline Although in recent decades western historians have paid little attention to travel writing Wrobel demonstrates that this genre in fact offers an important and rich understanding of the American West one that extends and complicates a simple reading of the West that promotes the notions of Manifest Destiny or American exceptionalism Wrobel finds counterpoints to the mythic West of the nineteenth century in such varied accounts as George Catlin s Adventures of the Ojibbeway and Ioway Indians in England France and Belgium 1852 Richard Francis Burton s The City of the Saints 1861 and Mark Twain s Following the Equator 1897 reminders of the messy and contradictory world that people navigated in the past much as they do in the present His book is a testament to the instructive ways in which the best travel writers have represented the West

Black Culture and the New Deal Lauren Rebecca Sklaroff, 2009-12-01 In the 1930s the Roosevelt administration unwilling to antagonize a powerful southern congressional bloc refused to endorse legislation that openly sought to improve political economic and social conditions for African Americans Instead as historian Lauren Rebecca Sklaroff shows the administration recognized and celebrated African Americans by offering federal support to notable black intellectuals celebrities and artists Sklaroff illustrates how programs within the Federal Arts Projects and several war agencies gave voice to such notable African Americans as Lena Horne Joe Louis Duke Ellington and Richard Wright as well as lesser known figures She argues that these New Deal programs represent a key moment in the history of American race relations as the cultural arena provided black men and women with unique employment opportunities and new outlets for political expression Equally important she contends that these cultural programs were not merely an attempt to appease a black constituency but were also part of the New Deal s larger goal of promoting a multiracial nation Yet while federal projects ushered in creativity and unprecedented possibilities they were also subject to censorship bigotry and political machinations With numerous illustrations Black Culture and the New Deal offers a fresh perspective on the New Deal s racial progressivism and provides a new framework for understanding black culture and politics in the Roosevelt era
