Demystifying the School Psychology Internship Daniel S. Newman, 2013-03-05 If you are a doctoral or non doctoral student about to begin your internship in school psychology you may have several questions about the process and what it will involve and you may even be facing some anxiety about it If you are a site or university supervisor preparing for the beginning of the internship year you may be looking for ways to improve the internship experience for your students or for yourself and your fellow supervisors Newman has used his many years of experience working with interns and field supervisors to create this guide to the school psychology internship process to address these common concerns He provides a comprehensive overview of the school psychology internship process from start to finish describing actions that can be taken to promote a high quality dynamic internship experience Emphasis is placed on the idea that the internship year is a dynamic and formative experience not a static event and that interns and supervisors both must be active planners coordinators and shapers of the experience Each part of the book explores a different phase of the internship from the first days through job applications and interviews Helpful and pragmatic tools are included throughout such as evaluation tools best practice guidelines and sample forms Online resources are also available to complement the book and include reproducible material from the book videos students can use to practice their interviewing skills and links to helpful resources

The School Psychology Internship Daniel S. Newman, 2019-08-09 Dr Newman has used his many years of experience working with interns and field supervisors to create this comprehensive guide to the school psychology internship

The second edition of this text includes updated research and tools including a new job interview video and new templates for developing a cover letter CV and remediation plan Expanded content includes brand new chapters focused on applying for doctoral internships through the APPIC Match process and successfully transitioning from the internship into the early career Students and internship supervisors alike will find this easy to use guide helpful in alleviating anxiety around common internship concerns Emphasis is placed on the idea that the internship year is a dynamic and formative experience not a static event and that interns and supervisors both must be proactive planners coordinators and shapers of the experience Interns and supervisors will find this guide to be a critical support for planning and enacting a high quality school psychology internship
