The Young Visitors Daisy Ashford,1919      The Young Visitors Daisy Ashford,2017-09-20 The Young Visitors or Mister Salteena's Plan is a 1919 novel by Daisy Ashford Ashford wrote the novel at the age of nine in 1890 in an exercise book Full of spelling mistakes each chapter was also written as a single paragraph Many years later in 1917 and aged 36 Ashford rediscovered her manuscript languishing in a drawer and lent it to Margaret Mackenzie a friend who was recovering from influenza It passed through several other hands before arriving with Frank Swinnerton a novelist who was also a reader for the publishing house of Chatto and Windus Largely due to Swinnerton's enthusiasm for this piece of juvenilia the book was published almost exactly as it had been written J M Barrie the creator of Peter Pan agreed to write a preface and the book became a huge success The book was so successful that it was reprinted 18 times in its first year alone After its publication untrue rumours soon started that the book was in fact an elaborate literary hoax and that it had been written by J M Barrie himself These rumours persisted for years      The Young Visitors Or, Mr. Salteena's Plan Daisy Ashford,2013-04-30 The owner of the copyright guarantees that The Young Visitors is the unaided effort in fiction of an authoress of nine years Effort however is an absurd word to use as you may see by studying the triumphant countenance of the child herself which is here reproduced as frontispiece to her sublime work This is no portrait of a writer who had to burn the oil at midnight indeed there is documentary evidence that she was hauled off to bed every evening at six it has an air of careless power there is a complacency about it that by the severe might perhaps be called smugness It needed no effort for that face to knock off a masterpiece It probably represents precisely how she looked when she finished a chapter When she was actually at work I think the expression was more solemn with the tongue firmly clenched between the teeth an unholy rapture showing as she drew near her love chapter Fellow craftsmen will see that she is looking forward to this chapter all the time      The Young Visitors Daisy Ashford,1951 The love story of naively sophisticated Ethel handsome wealthy Bernard and poor Mr Salteena the disappointed suitor told in the combination of childish and adult viewpoints creates a satire of romance      The Young Visitors Daisy Ashford,2014-08-07 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1919 Edition
