Literary Cultures and Twentieth-Century Childhoods Rachel Conrad, L. Brown Kennedy, 2020-09-12 This collection of essays offers innovative methodological and disciplinary approaches to the intersection of Anglophone literary cultures with children and childhoods across the twentieth century In two acts of re-centering the volume focuses both on the multiplicity of childhoods and literary cultures and on child agency Looking at classic texts for young audiences and at less widely read and unpublished material across genres including poetry fiction historical fiction or biography picturebooks and children's television essays foreground the representation of child voices and subjectivities within texts explore challenges to received notions of childhood and emphasize the role of child oriented texts in larger cultural and political projects Chapters frame themes of spectacle self and specularities across the twentieth century question tropes of childhood explore identity and displacement in narrating history and culture and elevate children as makers of literary culture A major intent of the volume is to approach literary culture not just as produced by adults for consumption by children but also as co created by young people through their actions as speakers artists readers and writers
