James Mustich, 2018-10-02 The ultimate literary bucket list THE WASHINGTON POST Celebrate the pleasure of reading and the thrill of discovering new titles in an extraordinary book that is as compulsively readable entertaining surprising and enlightening as the 1 000 plus titles it recommends Covering fiction poetry science and science fiction memoir travel writing biography children s books history and more 1 000 Books to Read Before You Die ranges across cultures and through time to offer an eclectic collection of works that each deserve to come with the recommendation You have to read this But it is not a proscriptive list of the great works rather it is a celebration of the glorious mosaic that is our literary heritage Flip it open to any page and be transfixed by a fresh take on a very favorite book Or come across a title you always meant to read and never got around to Or like browsing in the best kind of bookshop stumble on a completely unknown author and work and feel that tingle of discovery There are classics of course and unexpected treasures too Lists to help pick and choose like Offbeat Escapes or A Long Climb but What a View And its alphabetical arrangement by author assures that surprises await on almost every turn of the page with Cormac McCarthy and The Road next to Robert McCloskey and Make Way for Ducklings Alice Walker next to Izaak Walton There are nuts and bolts too best editions to read other books by the author if you like this you will like that recommendations and an interesting endnote of adaptations where appropriate Add it all up and in fact there are more than six thousand titles by nearly four thousand authors mentioned a life changing list for a lifetime of reading 948 pages later you still want more THE WASHINGTON POST The Zoom Nick Hall, 2018-05-11 From the queasy zooms in Alfred Hitchcock s Vertigo to the avant garde mystery of Michael Snow s Wavelength from the excitement of televised baseball to the drama of the political convention the zoom shot is instantly recognizable and highly controversial In The Zoom Nick Hall traces the century spanning history of the zoom lens in American film and television From late 1920s silent features to the psychedelic experiments of the 1960s and beyond the book describes how inventors battled to provide film and television studios with practical zoom lenses and how cinematographers clashed over the right ways to use the new zooms Hall demonstrates how the zoom brought life and energy to cinema decades before the zoom boom of the 1970s and reveals how the zoom continues to play a vital and often overlooked role in the production of contemporary film and television Picturing Canada Gail Edwards, Judith Saltman, 2014-07-31 The study of children s illustrated books is located within the broad histories of print culture publishing the book trade and concepts of childhood An interdisciplinary history Picturing Canada provides a critical understanding of the changing geographical historical and cultural aspects of Canadian identity as seen through the lens of children s publishing over two centuries Gail Edwards and Judith Saltman illuminate the connection between children s publishing and Canadian nationalism analyse the gendered history of children s librarianship identify changes and continuities in narrative themes and artistic styles and explore recent changes in the creation and

Exiled From Our Bodies Tereza Stehlíková, 2025-09-30 In an era where digital devices increasingly mediate our perception of reality this book explores the tension between the richness of direct sensory experience and the allure of the screen It examines how our growing dependence on virtual spaces and visually dominant media has led to a disconnect from our bodies and environment contributing to a sense of alienation both personal and ecological

Drawing on an autoethnographic approach artistic research methods and ethnographic interviews with experts across numerous disciplines this book argues for the continuing importance of lived embodied multi sensory experience It considers how the arts rather than merely reinforcing technological mediation can actively subvert the passivity imposed on our subjectivity by the latter offering creative strategies to re engage with the world through all our senses By using artistic processes to navigate the tension between the virtual and the real the book explores how creative practices can generate new ways of seeing feeling and understanding At its core this work suggests that to even begin to address the current environmental crisis we must first return to our bodies and come back to our senses literally and figuratively Through artistic experimentation philosophical inquiry and sensory exploration it proposes a reawakening to the reciprocity between body technology and environment offering a pathway towards a more conscious engaged and aesthetical way of inhabiting the world
