Theater Propaganda:

Theater and Propaganda George H. Szanto, 1978 This original and insightful study explores the points at which theater and propaganda meet Defining propaganda as a form of activated ideology George H Szanto discusses the distortion of information that occurs in dramatic literature in its stage film and television forms Szanto analyzes the nature of integration propaganda which is designed to render the audience passive and to encourage the acceptance of the status quo as opposed to agitation propaganda which aims to inspire the audience to action In Szanto's view most popular western theater is saturated though usually not intentionally with integration propaganda The overall purpose of Theater and Propaganda is twofold to analyze the nature of integration propaganda so that it becomes visible to western readers as a tool of the dominant class in society and to examine the manner by which unself-conscious propagandistic methods have saturated dramatic presentation In discussing the importance of propaganda within and between technological states the author examines the seminal work of Jacques Ellul In this chapter he analyzes the function of integration propaganda in a relatively stable society The following chapter defines and analyzes three theaters in the sense of performance of propaganda the theater of agitation propaganda of integration propaganda and of dialectical propaganda In this section he uses examples from a variety of plays movies and television commercials In succeeding chapters Szanto discusses the role of integration propaganda in the medieval Wakefield mystery plays and the plays of Samuel Beckett The appendix Contradiction and Demystification provides a general model that suggests ways of breaking down and overcoming the propagandistic intentions of an artwork and discusses theater's possible role in this breakdown
