perspectives on the 1950s Focusing on social and cultural themes they reveal a decade full of contradictions which belie the common simplistic accounts of the time Ranging from the education of the young Barry Humphries to the idea of an Australian identity in the lead up to the 1956 Olympics these essays also include the personal recollections of three leading historians providing a lively and critical insight into the Australia of the period Drawing out themes such as style sexuality modernism the suburbs travel writing and immigrant assimilation the authors excavate the experience of everyday life and the attitudes that characterised the 1950s They present a past that despite having shaped our lives continues to be disputed in contemporary Australia
