Theism And Cosmology Gifford Lectures:

Theism and Cosmology John Laird,2013-05-02 Theism is one of the major types of metaphysics and cosmology is the general theory of the whole wide world Must the world have an over worldly source or any source Would space crumble unless God perpetually sustained it by his brooding omnipresence Is all power properly understood divine power These large questions never out of date are examined by Professor Laird in the light of contemporary philosophy This seminal work originally published in 1940 is a lucid and profound discussion in theological philosophy

Theism and Cosmology John Laird,2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1942 edition

Theism and Cosmology John Laird,2008-06-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work

Dictionary of Twentieth-Century British Philosophers Stuart Brown,2005-06-01 This is a two volume work with entries on individuals who made some contribution to philosophy in the period 1900 to 1960 or soon after The entries deal with the whole philosophical work of an individual or in the case of philosophers still living their whole work to date Typically the individuals included have been born by 1935 and by now have made their main contributions Contributions to the subject typically take the form of books or journal articles but influential teachers and people otherwise important in the world of philosophy may also be included The dictionary includes amateurs as well as professional philosophers and where appropriate thinkers whose main discipline was outside philosophy There are special problems about the term British in the twentieth century partly because of human migration partly because of decolonialization and the changing denotation of the term The intention has been to include not only those who were British subjects at least for a significant part of their lives even if they mostly lived outside what is now the U K but also people who spent a significant part of their lives in Britain itself irrespective of their nationality or country of origin In the first category are included for instance a number of people who were born and educated in Britain but who subsequently taught in universities abroad In the second category are included those who were born elsewhere but who came to Britain and contributed to its philosophical culture

Constructing a Mediating Theology J.

D. Kim, 2022-11-16 How does an almighty and all loving God respond to his beloved human creatures who are made in his image and yet implicated in sin and suffering What is the origin of human suffering Is it sin or the limitations of human beings Is God moved by our suffering If he sympathizes and co suffers with us can he deliver us out of our miseries Thousands and perhaps millions of people have asked these questions and are searching desperately for their answers Two major views have been advanced in the history of Christian theology to describe God's response to the suffering of the world divine impassibility and divine passibility More recently a third mediating position between impassibilism and passibilism has arisen which affirms both the impassibility and the passibility of God This position can be identified as modified classical theism an approach that grasps the perfect and relational nature of God Following this mediating position this book sets out its own constructive understanding of a mediating position with the help of a new way of understanding the way in which the eternal actions and corresponding passions of the divine persons condition one another the dynamic reciprocity model

The Wonder of the Cross Richard A. Shenk, 2013-05-08 When considering and confronting the problem of evil we may be asking the wrong question Why is there evil in the world if God is good and powerful It may be wrong because it smuggles in an unbiblical premise God can and should use his coercive power to relieve suffering since he is both good and able But what if coercive power does not work to accomplish God's goals This book is an investigation into the possibility that the noncoercive power of the Cross must be at the center of this issue and that the Cross could reform this question We could ask instead How is God destroying evil and suffering and why is he taking so long The answer to this reframed question might be He is using evil and suffering to destroy evil and suffering for His People this is how long it takes While not a solution to the problem of evil could this help us learn to delight in God in a world in which evil and suffering seem at times so relentless
