Themes and Texts Aleksandr Konstantinovich Zholkovskii, 1984      Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture      Poetics of Expressiveness Yu Shcheglov, A. Zholkovsky, 1987-01-01 The volume presents for the first time in book form in English the work of two major representatives of the so called Moscow Tartu school The Introduction outlines their project for a poetics of expressiveness against the background of the structural semiotic movement of the 60s and 70s Part I is a systematic exposition of the theory concentrating on the concepts of theme expressive device poetic world etc Part II and III apply these concepts to a structuralist portrayal of Leo Tolstoy s tales for children shown to be A War and Peace in miniature and of the medieval Latin author Archpoet of Cologne with special emphasis on his Mock Penitent The volume is provided with a Bibliography of the poetics of expressiveness and a Glossary of its metalanguage      Future Indicative John Moss, 1987-01-01 The format of this book is arbitrary and exact the way paint is in a landscape by Alex Colville It follows the program of the symposium that took place at the University of Ottawa from April 25 to 27 1986 As Bakhtin leaps from the sidelines to centre stage as Derrida clambers out of orchestra pit into the prompter s box and Lancaun swings from the flies as Foucault L vi Strauss Saussure Barthes and a throng of others rhubarb their way through the text one recognizes just how connected all the disparate elements of this critical extravaganza really are Published in English      War in Goethe's Writings Edward T. Once it was anathema to speak about the content of a work of art in the wake of high modernism and formalism Critical practice has moved beyond such limits and today the focus on themes is the hallmark of feminist new historicist ethnic and even deconstructionist approaches though that focus may not always be openly declared This manifesto reasserts the validity of the thematic approach to criticism in our day bringing together for the first time an international group of critics and theoreticians who have thought deeply about literary motifs and themes How can we determine the theme of a given text May the focus on form be the theme of a certain moment Can the motif be understood as a formal category What operations permit us to say that three or four texts constitute variants of the same theme The contributors challenge the conventional dismissal of merely thematic approaches and offer the reader different ways of tackling the issue of what a piece of writing is about The work here comes out of such diverse intellectual traditions as Russian film theory French phenomenology Foucault narratology the Frankfurt School intellectual history Geistesgeschichte psychoanalytic criticism linguistic ideological criticism Proppian folklore studies and computerized plot summary models In addition to a collection of aphorisms from Plato to Robert Coover and a group of general and theoretical essays this volume contains examples of practical engagement with such topics as literary history Shakespeare autumn poetry anti-Semitism fading colors bachelors Richard Wagner and the Mexican Revolution No comparable volume exists Essays in Poetics ,2000 Boris Pasternak and the Tradition of German Romanticism Karen Evans-Romaine,1997 This dissertation documents Pasternak's reception of literature from three periods within German Romanticism the early Romanticism of the Jena School's literary representative Friedrich von Hardenberg Novalis the second generation Romanticism of E T A Hoffmann and the end and rejection of German Romanticism represented by Heinrich Heine Issues in Slavic Literary and Cultural Theory Karl Eimermacher, Peter Grzybek, Georg Witte,1989 Arthuriana ,1996 Semiotica ,1986 Semiotica the Journal of the International Association for Semiotic Studies features articles reporting results of research in all branches of semiotic studies and in depth reviews of selected current literature in the field Anthology of Magazine Verse and Yearbook of American Poetry ,1984
