

Cesario

A young nobleman of Messaline

Cesario resigned himself to an unhappy life as a woman until he was shipwrecked off the Illyrian coast and separated from everyone who knew him. He seized his chance and formed himself according to his own wishes.

Despite the happiness it brings him, he struggles with the hope that his twin brother Sebastian survived the wreck, guilt and grief at the thought that he didn't, and the romantic feelings he develops for Orsino, which distract him from the loss of his brother.
