Theological Dynamics

Trevor A. Hart

Theological Dynamics:

Bound to Differ Wesley A. Kort, 2010-11-01 Theological Dynamics Seward Hiltner, 1972-01-01 The content of this book is clearly focused on understanding selected theological teachings or doctrines dynamically Faith Thinking Trevor A. Hart, 2005-01-25 I know of no better current introduction to the study of theology than Dr Hart's lucid meaty and appetizing book Stephen Sykes Faith Thinking is a lively provocative and most welcome book contending for a dynamic way of doing theology that neither abandons thinking nor the life of the believing community Richard Holloway Dr Hart addresses fundamental questions about the nature of theology and theological method and his style is clear and eminently readable Anthony Thiselton There are few more important questions for theology today than that of its own character and status In this important and wide ranging book Trevor Hart articulates and defends a robust thesis about its respectability integrity and independence Colin Gunton Trevor Hart is Professor of Divinity and Principal of St Mary's College at the University of St Andrews Scotland Dynamics of Faith Paul Tillich, 2001-10-16 One of the greatest books ever written on the subject Dynamics of Faith is a primer in the philosophy of religion Paul Tillich a leading theologian of the twentieth century explores the idea of faith in all its dimensions while defining the concept in the process This graceful and accessible volume contains a new introduction by Marion Pauck Tillich's biographer The Dynamics of Grace Stephen J. Duffy, 2007-11-01 The doctrine of grace concerning the healing freeing and empowering presence of the Spirit in human life is central in Christianity This readable yet in depth historical and interpretive study retraces the long trajectory of the theology of grace as thinkers grappled with the mystery that envelops the interplay between God's life with us and our common life together Retrieving the rich symbols of the Christian past and reinterpreting them within their own cultural context theologians in different eras shaped the development of a Christian anthropology that plays upon all the registers of the greatness and misery of the human condition The presuppositions questions and benchmark anthropologies of early Christianity Augustine Aquinas Luther Trent and Rahner are critically analyzed in light of recent historical studies and in light of a new climate of ecumenical convergence The exploration ends by probing the anthropology of contemporary liberation theologies that mark another turning point in the tradition by breaking grace out of the realm of privacy and into the sociopolitical arena

Dynamics of Theology Roger Haight, 2001-01-01 Roger Haight reflects on the foundations upon which all theological statements rest exploring how theologians go about the task of theology His goal is to provide the fundamental grounds for the retrieval of traditional doctrine in new creative interpretations that come to bear upon life in our world today In a new Afterword Haight looks ahead from his methodological principles here to their application in his acclaimed Jesus Symbol of God Book jacket Theological Ethics and Global Dynamics William Schweiker, 2004-06-07 The nature of ethics has been the subject of much controversy and argument in recent decades Theological Ethics and Global Dynamics tackles these various debates offering a wide ranging comprehensive and provocative statement of the nature of theological ethics in global times Offers an accessible lively and provocative statement of the nature of moral philosophy and theological ethics in contemporary times Tackles various perspectives on debates about distinctly Christian ethics Argues that we need to reframe the arena in which moral questions are asked Engages a range of positions exploring distinctively modern issues such as moral and cultural relativism globalization problems of consumption and violence and religious pluralism Addresses the complexity of certain ethical decisions which are difficult and far from clear cut and yet presents an ethical understanding which is both humane and deeply religious Liberating Evangelism Stephen K. Pickard,1999-06-01 Has the church abdicated its responsibility for and privilege of spreading the gospel Has this baptismal birthright been forgotten or denied out of ignorance poor example or even misinformation Stephen Pickard argues that the church is called to be a community of the evangel and thus a community that seeks to embody the glad tidings of God in all of its life He addresses two issues the relationship of evangelism to systematic theology and the relationship of evangelism to the church In the case of the former he calls for a recovery of the complementary nature of theology and evangelism the theory and practice of the gospel discussing what this might involve and how it may benefit the church s evangelistic task This evangelistic task is then developed further in terms of the dynamics of communication Regarding evangelism and its relation to the church Pickard contends that the locus for evangelism has to be the Christian community its life of worship and discipleship in the world But the church must be reconceived missiologically in terms of the Great Commission and as a community for the praise of God

A Theology of Preaching Richard A. Lischer,2001-06-08 Richard Lischer s book is a stirring affirmation of preaching s importance as a major enterprise in its own right It is he writes a theological preface whose aim is to show how theology informs preaching and how preaching as a kerygmatic oral practical activity informs theology and brings it to its final form of expression Dr Lischer points to the historically negative results of preaching s exclusion from theology and then shows the benefits derived from the proper interaction of the two disciplines As he elaborates on this theme he explores the centrality of the Resurrection in both theology and preaching the relation of the law and the gospel and how preaching calls upon theology to recover its oral aural foundation For Lischer the act of preaching is an exercise of the preacher s imagination The real work of imagination is not inserting clever stories or esthetically pleasing images into the argument of the sermon It is knowing how to read texts in such a way that they will be allowed to function according to their original power and intent

Faith Thinking, Second Edition Trevor Hart,2020-11-12 Faith Thinking provides a stimulating introduction to some vital questions of method in Christian theology The book argues that faith commitments are necessary not in theology alone but in all serious acts of our knowing anything at all as human beings Knowledge in other words is always bound to be the outcome of some process of faith seeking understanding Fresh consideration is given too in this book to relationships obtaining between the authoritative canon of Scripture tradition and reason in the theological task Finally in this new edition an important reevaluation is undertaken of the potentially explosive impact of truth claims in a post truth world Dynamics of Spiritual Life Richard F. Lovelace, 1979-07-13 Richard F Lovelace draws from biblical models and church history to present a comprehensive approach to spiritual renewal Considering such practical issues as renewal of the local congregation the ways revivals go wrong and Christian approaches to the arts and social justice Lovelace s classic is for all who long to revitalize the church

Theology and the Experience of Disability Andrew Picard, Myk Habets, 2016-04-28 The Christian gospel compels humanity to embrace deeper ways of being human together that will overcome false divisions and exclusions in search of flourishing and graced communities Presenting both short narratives emerging out of theological reflection on experience and analytical essays arising from engagement in scholarly conversations Theology and the Experience of Disability is a conscious attempt to develop theology by and with people with disabilities instead of theology about people with disabilities A mixture of academic professional practical and or lived experience is brought to the topic in search of constructive multi disciplinary proposals for church and society The result is an interdisciplinary engagement with the constructive possibilities that emerge from a distinctly Christian understanding of disability as lived experience

The Dynamics of Christian Mission Paul Everett Pierson, 2009 In this text Paul E Pierson Dean Emeritus of the School of Intercultural Studies at Fuller Theological Seminary guides the reader through a missiological view of history from Christ to the present Pierson particularly highlights the contexts by which the biblical faith moved into new and different cultures Today the Christian faith is the most geographically and culturally diverse worldwide movement that exists Paul E Pierson s book illuminates how this amazing fact has come about and how the trend will continue Sign up for the WCIU Press

Emotions and Religious Dynamics Nathaniel A. Warne, 2016-05-13 We all feel emotions and are moved to action by them Religious communities often select and foster certain emotions over others Without understanding this it is hard to grasp the way groups view the world and each other Often it is the underlying emotional pattern of a group rather than its doctrines that either divides it from or attracts it to others These issues so important in today s world are explored in this book in a genuinely interdisciplinary way by anthropologists psychologists theologians and historians of religion and in some detailed studies of well and less well known religious traditions from across the world
