Theological Foundations Robert Danielson, Faith E. Parry, 2013-01-01 The digital copies of this book are available for free at First Fruits website place.asburyseminary.edu/firstfruits

PREFACE As part of Asbury Theological Seminary's 90th Anniversary First Fruits Press decided the timing was right to republish some of the past works created by the Seminary during the celebrations of its 40th and 50th Anniversaries During the academic year of 1973-1974 the Seminary's 50th Anniversary President Frank B Stanger encouraged the celebration through two different series of lectures The first was to assign various faculty members key theological topics and have them present scholarly papers at Estes Chapel throughout the year These papers were separately published in The Asbury Seminarian at the time but never together as a collection until now These papers are presented here in the order in which they were given Some unnamed librarian in the B L Fisher Library collected the typed papers and had them bound together with a flyer about the 50th Anniversary celebration Finding this volume was the event that encouraged us to publish this collection as a new edition Many of the names in this volume are illustrious names from Asbury s past that will be familiar to many alumni I have the fortunate pleasure to know two of these men who are still present at Asbury Theological Seminary in this our 90th year Both Dr Kenneth C Kinghorn and Dr Robert E Coleman are retired but still active on campus and occasionally teaching Their passion for the Kingdom of God is still evident in their lives today as a testimony of the power of the Holy Spirit to transform lives through the teaching ministry of Asbury Theological Seminary The second special series of lectures encouraged by Dr Stanger occurred during the week of March 11 15 1974 Although no written papers or sermons are available for publication these lecture were recorded and are now available electronically on First fruits Press under the Heritage Material LINK Four important names in the history of the Church of the 20th Century were present on campus at the same time Anglican theologian and scholar of the New Testament C F D Moule 1908 2007 from Cambridge University came and spoke on the topic Whither Christology The Anglican missionary bishop and scholar of Church History Stephen Neill 1900 1984 gave a presentation on Whither Mission One of the greatest American Methodist theologians Dr Albert C Outler 1908 1989 known for his scholarship of Wesley spoke on the topic Wither Wesleyan Theology Bishop Roy C Nichols 1918 2002 the first African American bishop of the United Methodist Church conducted preaching during the week It must have been an inspiring week for students faculty staff and alumni to hear these four influential voices of the Church As we enter our 90th year as a Seminary we face a world with many new challenges but still impacted by the same problems of sin Asbury Theological Seminary has always held fast to the idea that our hope lies in Jesus Christ and the Good News preached through scripture These essays are a reminder that even in this new millennium some truths never change As we look to the future let us also remember the heritage from which we come as we read these timely messages from forty year ago Robert Danielson PhD Editor The Asbury Journal     Theological Foundations for Ministry Ray Sherman Anderson,1976     Biblical and Theological Foundation of the Family Joseph C. Atkinson,2014 Biblical and Theological Foundations of the Family argues that the family has a constitutive nature and a specific theological purpose which God reveals in the church Joseph Atkinson investigates the principles of the doctrine of Creation which inform the family from the beginning the vital way the family functions as carrier of the covenant in the Old Testament and the critical aspects of Hebraic anthropology especially corporate personality upon which the family is based This book provides a counter argument to the view of the human person developed in modern thought and which prevails today the autonomous self determining individual with no essential nature or social or ecclesial aspects Atkinson discusses the constitutive corporate nature of the human person and how the covenantal family of the Old Testament finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ The author does so by investigating how baptism transforms the family and gives it an ecclesial identity making it a domestic church He then examines the development of the family s ecclesial nature in the church fathers and the providential re appropriation of the family's inner ecclesial identity in the teachings of the Second Vatican Council and in subsequent magisterial teachings. This ground-breaking work establishes a solid biblical and theological foundation on which a theology of the family can be constructed. It thus fills a critical lack in the current literature on the family. The wide range of sources including Jewish, Catholic, Orthodox, and Protestant give this work a genuine ecumenical dimension. Biblical and Theological Foundations of the Family will become indispensable for anyone wanting to engage in serious study of the structure and meaning of the family and its place in the salvific will of God.

Hermeneutics and Method Ivo Coelho, 2001-01-01 Using the Thomist notion of wisdom as a key for interpretation, Coelho traces the flowering of the universal viewpoint into a mature theological method, one that holds out the hope of an effective transcultural mediation of meanings and values.

The Axioms of Religion E. Y. Mullins, In this classic work of Baptist theology, E. Y. Mullins sets forth six fundamental principles that he argues are the essential elements of the Baptist message to the world. These axioms of religion are grounded in the New Testament and form the basis for Baptist beliefs about the nature of God, the church, and the relationship between the individual believer and God. Mullins contends that these axioms, while accepted by most evangelical Christians, are most consistently embodied in the life and doctrine of Baptist churches.

A Sense of the Sacred R. Kevin Seasoltz, 2005-04-13 There have been many histories of Christian art and architecture, but none written by a theologian such as Kevin Seasoltz. Following a chapter on culture as the context for theology, liturgy, and art, Seasoltz surveys developments from the early church up through the conventional artistic styles and periods. Comprehensive, illuminating, ecumenical.

Youth Ministry Jeffrey Kaster, 2016 All church ministries are oriented toward fostering missionary discipleship. Youth ministry focuses this mission on young people. In this new book in the Collegeville Ministry series, Jeffrey Kaster explores leadership for youth ministry, Christian discipleship, conversion, the theological foundations for youth ministry, the importance of community and belonging, and vocational discernment. Kaster looks at the practice of vocational discernment and how it encourages youth ministry to continually help young people discern their gifts, connect them in service to meet the world's deep needs, and foster Christian discipleship. Youth ministry at its best mobilizes the faith community to support young people as they learn to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. The Collegeville Ministry series provides practical, effective help for those serving the parish through various ministries. Brand new volumes complement the already popular, existing volumes that have been completely updated and expanded. The Collegeville Ministry series offers inexpensive yet comprehensive training on the various liturgical roles. Each booklet is prepared by a specialist in the field and provides down-to-earth suggestions for making ministry more meaningful for the ministers and those they serve.

Theological Foundations for Counseling J. V. Fesko, 2026-07-21 In Theological Foundations for Counseling, theologian J. V. Fesko equips students and counseling practitioners with essential doctrinal knowledge for Christian counseling practice. Fesko focuses on key doctrines most relevant to counseling ministry: general and special revelation faith and reason suffering and union with Christ Drawing from classic Reformed theology he demonstrates how counselors can faithfully use both Scripture and wisdom embedded in creation to counsel effectively and biblically Each chapter combines solid theological exposition with practical application to connect doctrinal knowledge directly to counseling practice Fesko shows how psychological concepts can be helpfully deployed within a Reformed framework providing students with the theological foundation necessary for wise Scripture based counseling that honors both divine revelation and the insights available through careful study of God s created order

Silent Exodus--Parents' Silent Suffering Matthew Richard Sheldon Todd, 2025-05-08 The broad cultural phenomenon of youth dechuraching is often accompanied by stories of broken hearted parents The objective of this book is to consider ways immigrant parents are impacted by generational assimilation and dechuraching from ethno religious communities The original contribution of the book is in substantiating parents experience from a spectrum of impacts The author explores ways impact is intensified or minimized Are you looking to improve your understanding of the risks and opportunities of handing on the faith Have you been wrestling with the cultural assimilation of your children Have you wondered how a biblical and interdisciplinary framework might help parents understand and even avert dechuraching Are you looking for supportive approaches for parents experiencing generational disconnect and difficult parenting transitions The author discloses cultural myths that circulate on parenting and advocates improving support for parents struggling to spiritually launch their children This book provides strategies for encountering transitional family complications if a youth leaves the faith and church
