

NO COMPROMISE

Revelation 2:12-17

Introduction

One of the more popular symbols of our time is the serpent, used by medical professionals all over. This is because the serpent is the image of the pagan god of healing, Esculapius. He was the chief of four gods in the majestic city of Pergamum, center of culture and learning, origin of the precious product pergamena, and home to the 200,000 volume library gifted by Anthony to Cleopatra. People from all over the world flocked to this city every year to seek relief and healing from this god. Amidst such opulence, idolatry and sophistication, a small church was trying to defend its faith, the church in Pergamum, the second recipient of the letter of Jesus Christ to the churches. Many were tempted and persecuted. Some withstood it, many gave in, others simply compromised and invented their own brand of Christianity. Jesus had one message for them – NO COMPROMISE!

Controlling Question: How can we avoid compromising our faith?

BY REMAINING FAITHFUL TO JESUS

It is possible for all Christians to be corrupted (v19). It is for this reason that corruption must not be allowed to gain a foothold in our lives. These Christians were sincere, hardworking, loving and had faith. The only fault they had was their tolerance of the evil in their midst which if left unchecked would bring about their downfall.

The did not deny the faith

They remained loyal to the name of Jesus by not denying the faith. They were right at the center of the conflict and controversy, where Satan dwells. Such a description is a direct allusion to the cults and their influence among the people.

- They were tempted to compromise.
- They were persecuted to death as illustrated by Antipas. The name means "against all" which could be an indication of the extent of the received persecution.

They desired more what God had to give

They did not even know it at the time but Jesus promised them:

- Hidden manna – a promise of nourishment. Manna was a food in the wilderness. In the midst of such deprivation, God assures them of spiritual and physical sustenance.
- White stone with new name written on it. During ancient times, people were given small stones with things written on them as an assurance of their acceptance. If you were to a royal party, it becomes your passport to enter. The value is not on the stone but on what is written on it. The promised stone therefore was an assurance to these Christians that although the wicked world around has rejected and persecuted them, Jesus accepts and welcomes them in the fold.

Illustrate: The occasions of torture and persecution in KSA where Christians are forced to deny the faith. Some do so for convenience's sake and justify themselves one way or the other.

BY AVOIDING THE SIN OF BALAAM

Balaam is mentioned here in particular and compared to the Nicolaitans. This is the principal form of compromise that many among them make to escape the isolation and the persecution. What was wrong with Balaam? His sin is described in the bible in 3 ways.

The teaching of Balaam (Rev 2:14; Numbers 31:15-16)

- Balaam urged King Balak to corrupt Israel by urging them to intermarry with heathen and thus be exposed and commit idolatry and immoral practices.
