Theology Politics And Peace:

Religion and the Politics of Peace and Conflict Linda Hogan, Dylan Lee Lehrke, 2009 Theology, Politics, and Peace Theodore Runyon, 1989 Based on lectures delivered at a conference held at Candler School of Theology and the Carter Center of Emory University in April of 1988 Pref Includes bibliographical references and index Peace, Politics, and Religion Jeffrey Haynes, 2020 Relationships between peace politics and religion are often controversial and sometimes problematic Religion is a core source of identity for billions of people around the world and it is hardly surprising that sometimes it becomes involved in conflicts At the same time we can see religion involved not only in conflict It is also central to conflict resolution peace making and peacebuilding Religious involvement is often necessary to try to end hatred and differences frequently central to political conflicts especially but not only in the Global South Evidence shows that religious leaders and faith based organisations can play constructive roles in helping to end violence and in some cases build peace via early warnings of conflict good offices once conflict has erupted as well as advocacy mediation and reconciliation The chapters of this book highlight that religion can encourage both conflict and peace through the activities of people individually and collectively imbued with religious ideas and ideals Paul's Non-Violent Gospel Jeremy Gabrielson, 2014-08-28 Rather than viewing the Apostle Paul s many references to peace and non retaliation as generalized ethical principles drawn from Paul s background Jeremy Gabrielson argues that peace and non retaliation should be understood in relation to Paul s history of being a violent persecutor of Jesus followers After his Damascus road experience Paul zealously announced the gospel and abandoned his violent ways His apostolic vocation included calling and equipping assemblies of people whose common in life was ordered by a politics characterized by peaceableness This political dimension of Paul s gospel in continuity with the earliest evidence we possess regarding Jesus and his disciples stands in stark contrast to the politics of both the contemporary Roman imperial power and those who would seek to replace Rome by violent means Carl Friedrich von Weizsäcker: Pioneer of Physics, Philosophy, Religion, Politics and Peace Research Ulrich Bartosch, 2015-04-22 This book offers a collection of texts by Carl Friedrich von Weizsaecker 1912 2007 a major German universal scientist who was a pioneer in physics philosophy religion politics and peace research He started as an assistant to the physicist Werner Heisenberg held professorships in theoretical physics Strasbourg physics Goettingen and philosophy Hamburg and was a co director with Juergen Habermas of a Max Planck Institute for Research into living conditions in a world of science and technology in Starnberg This unique anthology spans the wide scope of his innovative thinking including his philosophical self reflections on peace nuclear strategy security and defensive defense on nuclear energy on the conditions of freedom on his experience of religion including poetry from his early youth Most texts appear in English for the first time and are selected for use in seminars on physics philosophy religion politics and peace research War, Peace and Reconciliation Weber Theodore R, 2016-10-27 War Peace and Reconciliation invites Christians and their churches into a dialogue regarding how to think about war from a standpoint rooted in faith It asks how reconciliation which is central to Christian life and doctrine can engage with the realities of war without surrendering its fundamental affirmations Theodore Weber defines these realities politically by discussing the meanings of power peace as a particular organisation of power and the international system The study of war and politics is unavoidable as is engagement with reconciliation because all human activity exists in the context of the gracious work of God to renew and reconcile the fallen creation Weber's inquiry is theocentric and christocentric It culminates in a stirring call to churches to examine all their practices in the light of this perspective

Theology, Political Theory, and Pluralism Kristen Deede Johnson, 2007-01-25 How can we live together in the midst of our differences This is one of the most pressing questions of our time Tolerance has been the bedrock of political liberalism while proponents of agonistic political thought and radical democracy have sought an answer that allows a deeper celebration of difference Kristen Deede Johnson describes the move from tolerance to difference and the accompanying move from epistemology to ontology within political theory Building on this ontological turn in search of a theological answer to the question she puts Augustine into conversation with recent political theorists and theologians This theological option enables the Church to envision a way to engage with contemporary political society without losing its own embodied story and practices It contributes to our broader political imagination by offering a picture of rich engagement between the many different particularities that constitute a pluralist society

War & Peace, 1916 Religion, Civil Society, and Peace in Northern Ireland John D. Brewer, Gareth I. Higgins, Francis Teeney, 2011-12-16 Religion was thought to be part of the problem in Ireland and incapable of turning itself into part of the solution Many commentators deny the churches a role in Northern Ireland's peace process or belittle it focusing on the few well known events of church involvement and the small number of high profile religious peacebuilders This new study seeks to correct various misapprehensions about the role of the churches by pointing to their major achievements in both the social and political dimensions of the peace process by small scale lesser known religious peacebuilders as well as major players The churches are not treated lightly or sentimentally and major weaknesses in their contribution are highlighted The study challenges the view that ecumenism was the main religious driver of the peace process focusing instead on the role of evangelicals it warns against romanticising civil society pointing to its regressive aspects and counter productive activities and queries the relevance of the idea of spiritual capital to understanding the role of the churches in post conflict reconstruction which the churches largely ignore This book is written by three insiders to church peacebuilding in Northern Ireland who bring their insight and expertise as sociologists to bear in their analysis of four years in depth interviewing with a wide cross section of people involved in the peace process including church leaders and rank and file members of political parties prime ministers paramilitary organisations community development and civil society groups as well as government politicians and advisors Many of these are speaking for the first time about the role of religious peacebuilding in Northern Ireland and doing so with remarkable candour The volume allows the Northern Irish case study to speak to other conflicts where religion is thought to be problematic by developing a conceptual framework to understand religious peacebuilding

Dickinson's Theological Quarterly, 1877 Quarterly Bulletin - Meadville Theological School Meadville Theological School, 1924 One issue of each volume is the school catalogue

The Implication of Prevention of Conflicts for Justice and Peace Asega Primus, 2007 The author investigates the extent to which one can ethically apply the principle of prevention to conflicts as reflected in the pastoral letter Gerechter Friede of the German Episcopal Conference He critically analyses the text of the second part of the pastoral letter examines the outstanding controversies on it reflects on the ethical meaning of conflict and prevention and finally attempts to apply his conclusions to the African paradigm of Church as Family The investigation leads the author to the conclusion that conflicts are daily human experiences and may not always necessarily lead to violence Besides it is difficult to specify with certainty the point at which a particular conflict turns violent Preventing them arbitrarily could be counter productive However he agrees with Gerechter Friede that violence especially war can be better combated through undermining the logic of violence and counter violence rather than by its own instruments

A Compendium of Christian Theology William Burt Pope, 1880 The Advocate of Peace, 1898 Peace Movements in Islam Juan Cole, 2021-11-18

Contrary to the distorted and in many places all too prevalent view of Islam as somehow inherently or uniquely violent there is a dazzling array of Muslim organizations and individuals that have worked for harmony and conciliation through history The Qur'an itself the Muslim scripture is full of peace verses urging returning good for evil and wishing peace upon harassers alongside the verses on just defensive war that have so often been misinterpreted This groundbreaking volume fills a gaping hole in the literature on global peace movements bringing to the fore the many peace movements and peacemakers of the Muslim world From Senegalese Sufi orders to Bosnian women s organizations to Indian Muslim freedom fighters who were allies of Mahatma Gandhi against British colonialism it shows that history is replete with colorful personalities from the Muslim world who made a stand for peaceful methods Rethinking Wesley's Theology for Contemporary Methodism Randy L. Maddox,1998 One of the most surprising developments in contemporary Methodist theology is the degree to which leading Methodist and Wesleyan systematic theologians are reengaging John Wesley finding his works instructive provocative and stimulating for their own theological reflection Such a broad and purposeful dialogue with Wesley by theologians of the Wesleyan heritage is unprecedented in this century and much rarer in the previous century than is popularly believed This volume presents a set of original essays that represent and embody this new engagement allowing the reader to see how several prominent theologians are self consciously reexamining and reappropriating their theological tradition Advocate of Peace and Universal Brotherhood ,1909 War & Peace graf Leo Tolstoy,1911 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1856
