Covenant Theology and Justification by Faith Jeong Koo Jeon, 2006-05-23 This study explores the Shepherd Controversy 1975 1982 and the contemporary debate on covenant and justification by faith from the perspectives of historical systematic and biblical theology The distinctive contribution lies in the identification that the Shepherd Controversy as a logical outcome of rejecting the distinction between Law and Gospel at Westminster Seminary in Philadelphia The larger problem is that Norman Shepherd and other associated theologians reject the distinction between Law and Gospel injecting their monocovenantalism into the theologies of Calvin the Westminster Standards and Murray The result has been hermeneutical and theological confusion among some of the followers of the Union with Christ School scholars Reformed theologians led by Greg Bahnsen Auburn Avenue theologians and pastors are also monocovenantalists and have been influenced by the Union with Christ School scholars directly and indirectly Their common denominator is the rejection of the distinction between Law and Gospel in their analysis and understanding of covenant and justification by faith Having been influenced by the Union with Christ School scholars at Westminster Seminary in Philadelphia some scholars began to adopt the hermeneutics and theology of the New Perspective on Paul which is anti Reformational and anti Pauline The adaptation of the New Perspective on Paul among some of the followers of the Union with Christ School is a logical step because both of them reject the distinction between Law and Gospel which was a key hermeneutical and theological tool during the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation against the background of the medieval legalistic religion Biblical

Eschatology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2021-10-01 Jeon s Biblical Eschatology explores the pattern of covenant eschatology demonstrated and revealed in the Bible throughout redemptive history In a sense it is a revolutionary method to freshly examine and look at the entire redemptive history from the perspective of covenant eschatology because the Bible itself is the covenantal canon Readers will marvel at how the author unpacks the pictorial pattern of covenant eschatology progressively revealed in the Bible As we live in the Global Mission Age under the grace of God it is vitally important and necessary to have a proper view of eschatology Jeon s book will guide believers to a biblically balanced understanding of eschatology and properly equip them with a biblical covenantal and eschatological worldview to live their lives for the glory of God actively participating in the Global Mission under the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we eagerly wait for the second coming of Jesus Christ Biblical Theology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2017-01-31 Dr Jeon s Biblical Theology is a timely must read for church leaders seminarians pastors and missionaries in the Global Mission Field It examines God s redemptive history in creation fall redemption and consummation as revealed in the Old and New Testaments Dr Jeon delves into the grand redemptive drama progressively demonstrated through the divine covenants as well as the manifestation of the eschatological Kingdom of God This book provides not only a proper redemptive historical vision of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation but also key ideas for the formation of a solid biblical worldview Dr Jeon demonstrates the intersection and union between biblical and systematic theology while exploring redemptive history Dr Jeon also emphasizes that we currently live in the eschatological age inaugurated after Jesus Christ's death and resurrection as the Mediator of the New Covenant. This inaugurated eschatological Kingdom of God will be consummated after the Second Coming of Jesus. Meanwhile the present age is occurring during the last days in which we live in the era of Global Missions by God's grace. The community of the New Covenant church should humbly respond by participating in evangelism and missions demonstrating to the world that God's final judgment is coming.

A Church Wide Enough for Everyone Steven H. Propp, 2018-02-03 Robert Schaeffer and Douglas West are best friends living in Oklahoma in 1963 when they discover that they both sense a calling to become ministers in a mainline Christian denomination. But from seminary and their early years in ministry to their golden years looking back on what it takes to lead a congregation a stimulating sometimes puzzling yet often inspirational world of theological controversies and congregational concerns would unfold for these two men of God. A Church Wide Enough for Everyone follows these two men on their journey to demonstrate the continuing relevance of the Christian faith in a postmodern world. After moving to Berkeley California to attend college and seminary they have little time to ponder the vast social changes taking place before they immediately enter into intensive critical study of the Bible and Christian theology. And as Robert is then thrust into the ordained ministry with his wife Faye both men must in their own ways face the political cultural and ideological pressures of each passing decade responding to challenges from both within the church and from outsiders. Are mainline churches and Christian theology dead? Or might they be revitalized in the current century? A Church Wide Enough for Everyone and the inspired journeys of two ministers offers a window into how this revitalization and new understanding is possible.

Theonomy William S. Barker, W. Robert Godfrey, 1990 A school of thought bearing the label Christian reconstruction and characteristically using the term Theonomy literally the law of God has been making an impact on American religious and political life in recent years. Having begun in Reformed or Calvinistic circles Theonomy has in the last decade proven attractive to a wider group of American evangelicals and fundamentalists including some charismatics. Chief among its leading characteristics are an emphasis upon the Old Testament law stress upon the continued normativity not only of the moral law but also of the judicial law of the Old Testament Israel including its penal sanctions and belief that the Old Testament judicial law applies not only to Israel but also to Gentile nations including modern America so that it is the duty of civil government to enforce that law and execute its penalties. The focus of this collection of sixteen essays by the faculty members of Westminster Theological Seminary is the effect of Theonomy on churches and Christian people. Their desire is to offer a constructive critique of the Christian Reconstruction movement. As they see it Theonomy in various ways represents a distorted view of continuities and discontinuities between the Old Testament and our time.

Creator, Redeemer, Consummator Howard Griffith, John R. Muether, 2007-08-01 One of the most able Old Testament scholars of the twentieth century Meredith Kline has done pathbreaking research and has opened new doors of understanding to the Scriptures If you want to interpret the Bible accurately you cannot afford to ignore the writings of Meredith Kline This volume is an appropriate tribute to the distinguished career and scholarly contributions of Meredith Kline Luder Whitlock former President Reformed Theological Seminary Covenant Theology Jeong Koo Jeon,2004-11-03 In Covenant Theology author Jeong Koo Jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology He explores the debate between John Murray and Meredith G Kline placing their ideas in the larger context of Biblical studies that have had a direct influence on Reformed theology and evangelicalism Although the theologies of Murray and Kline contain significant differences they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace In addition they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works Jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith grace and atonement Calvin and the Federal Vision Jeong Koo Jeon,2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth it is worthy to explore Calvin s covenant theology which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole In recent years the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles It has strong hermeneutical theological and practical attachment with Calvin Although Calvin was a covenant theologian he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone sola fide and salvation by grace alone sola gratia with a balanced emphasis of believers covenantal obedience Moreover we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history In Calvin the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant However the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics theology and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin In that sense we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics soteriology the doctrine of double predestination and sacramental theology Theonomy in Christian Ethics Greg L. Bahnsen,1979 Missiology,1995 An international review Theonomy in Christian Ethics, by Greg L. Bahnsen O. Palmer Robertson,198? The Law, the Gospel, and the Modern Christian Willem VanGemeran,1993 The Protestant Reformation sparked an ongoing debate among Christians on the relationship between the Law and the Gospel as part of the discussion of the relationship of the Old and New Testaments Questions such as these are being asked Do the Law and the Gospel belong to two separate dispensations Has the Gospel replaced the Law What is the relevance of the Old Testament Law to our lives as Christians Is there continuity between it and what Christ expects of us in the Gospel It is no secret that

Christians have differed widely on these questions This book using the familiar format of a Views book explores five major approaches to this important biblical topic that have developed in Protestant circles Each of the five authors presents his particular perspective on the issue and responds to the other four
