Theory And Practice In Ethnic Conflict Man:

Theory and Practice in Ethnic Conflict Management M. Ross, J. Rothman, 1999-06-22 Throughout the world there are efforts both large and small to address ethnic conflicts identity based disputes between groups who are unable to live side by side in the same state This book brings together a collection of case studies on interventions in ethnic conflicts throughout the world in which the nature of the state is a core concern Turkey Russia Macedonia Guatemala Israel Cyprus Northern Ireland South Africa US and asks how the projects themselves understand success and failure in ethnic conflict resolution It emphasises the complexity and importance of better understanding ways in which small scale interventions can sometimes have a large impact on large scale ethnic conflict and how the goals of the intervenors shift as the participants redefine the identities and interest at stake

Doing Research Daniel Druckman, 2005-03-16 An award winning book Doing Research is a must read Designed for students across a variety of social science disciplines it is the first research methods text devoted to conflict analysis and resolution It begins with a discussion of the philosophical foundations for doing research providing guidelines on how to develop research questions and how these questions can be addressed with various methodologies The book presents a wide ranging treatment of both quantitative and qualitative approaches to the design and analysis of problems of conflict

John W. Burton: A Pioneer in Conflict Analysis and Resolution David J. Dunn, Hans Günter Brauch, Pamela Burton, 2024-04-26 This book charts John W Burton s transition from practitioner in diplomacy to pioneer in the theory of peace research thinking on world society and conflict resolution Born in 1915 given his father s name it was assumed that he would follow his father and become a Christian missionary He did not he joined the Australian Public Service From a junior position he rose rapidly He was forthright and some found him irritating or worse He progressed to the highest levels of policy making Amidst some controversy he resigned abruptly in 1951 He then worked on his farm outside Canberra writing avidly He did not intend to become an academic but in 1963 he was offered a position in International Relations at University College in London and he accepted He was key to the foundation of the International Peace Research Association IPRA in 1964 and of the Conflict Research Society in the UK because he thought that words and ideas were not enough there needed to be instruments of change Looking back he was in fact a secular missionary His aim Simple to change the world This book is an exploration of how conflict should be reinterpreted The ideas of his work are a product not of any metaphysical approach but of experience Burton knew the field Cold War diplomacy civil strife reforming organisations resistance to change He had been there and he found much to criticise This book illustrates what he had to offer and explains why These readings reveal shifts in his ideas cohering incrementally integrated into a new framework This book presents his pioneering and relevant work Transcending disciplinary boundaries it will be of interest to students as well as professionals who address conflict at all levels of society from family to state
