

There Comes Papa

Louisa Caroline Tuthill

There Comes Papa:

There Comes Papa G. Arunima, 2003 This is the first study to examine Nayar matriliney as a historical phenomenon Kerala is the only place in the world where a kinship system was outlawed The book analyses the reasons for the abolition by the colonial state and lays bare the differences between early twentieth late twentieth and mid nineteenth century forms of matriliney This is the first historical work in India on matriliney

Empires of light Niharika Dinkar, 2019-09-19 Light was central to the visual politics and imaginative geographies of empire even beyond its role as a symbol of knowledge and progress in post Enlightenment narratives This book describes how imperial mappings of geographical space in terms of cities of light and hearts of darkness coincided with the industrialisation of light in homes streets theatres and its instrumentalisation through new representative forms photography film magic lanterns theatrical lighting Cataloguing the imperial vision in its engagement with colonial India the book evaluates responses by the celebrated Indian painter Ravi Varma 1848 1906 to reveal the centrality of light in technologies of vision not merely as an ideological effect but as a material presence that produces spaces and inscribes bodies

Unruly Visions Gayatri Gopinath, 2018-10-25 In Unruly Visions Gayatri Gopinath brings queer studies to bear on investigations of diaspora and visibility tracing the interrelation of affect archive region and aesthetics through an examination of a wide range of contemporary queer visual culture Spanning film fine art poetry and photography these cultural forms which Gopinath conceptualizes as aesthetic practices of queer diaspora reveal the intimacies of seemingly disparate histories of post colonial dwelling and displacement and are a product of diasporic trajectories Countering standard formulations of diaspora that inevitably foreground the nation state as well as familiar formulations of queerness that ignore regional gender and sexual formations she stages unexpected encounters between works by South Asian Middle Eastern African Australian and Latinx artists such as Tracey Moffatt Akram Zaatari and Allan deSouza Gopinath shows how their art functions as regional queer archives that express alternative understandings of time space and relationality The queer optics produced by these visual practices creates South to South region to region and diaspora to region cartographies that profoundly challenge disciplinary and area studies rubrics Gopinath thereby provides new critical perspectives on settler colonialism empire military occupation racialization and diasporic dislocation as they indelibly mark both bodies and landscapes

Reconsidering Social Identification Abdul R. JanMohamed, 2020-11-29 This volume investigates how four socially constructed identities race gender class and caste can be rethought as matrices designed to accumulate various kinds of socio economic values and to translate and transfer these values from one group to another Essays in the anthology also attempt to compare the mechanisms deployed by various groups to consolidate identificatory investments Drawn mainly for the fields of literary and cultural studies the essays are grouped in four categories Essays collected under Theoretical Approaches scrutinize the relative value of various approaches those collected under Considerations of Race Gender and Sexual Orientation examine the interaction between these three categories in formation of identities those grouped under Comparative Analysis of African American and Dalit Writing provide comparative analyses of the literary productions of these two oppressed groups and finally those under The Persistence of Racialized Perceptions focus on the role of ideologically inflected perception of European colonizers and the persistence of such perception in the categorization and treatment of colonial migrants to the metropolis
