This book represents the first monograph study of Jesuit religious theater in China and its connections to the commemoration of the Society's martyrs of the late Qing It considers the Society's efforts to rehabilitate the Western imagination of China and the Jesuit aim of stirring emotional responses to stage performances that inculcate Catholic and Western sensibilities By connecting the religious underpinnings of the Spiritual Exercises to the sumptuous Baroque expressions of Jesuit drama performed on China's stages this important work explores an entirely new area of research that weaves together several modes of analysis visual cultural and nationalistic March's Thesaurus Dictionary Francis Andrew March,1930

Missionary Spaces Thomas Coomans,2024-05-02 The spatial turn of missionary places Situated at the crossroads of missionary history imperial history and colonial architecture this volume examines the architectural staging and spatial implications of the worldwide expansion of Christianity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By focusing on specific architectural fragments analysing the intersection of Christian edifices in colonial and traditional urban settings or unravelling the social understanding of missionary places each chapter strives to understand the agency of missionary spaces Bringing together scholars from different disciplines and fields this book aims to centre those missionary spaces by approaching them not merely as a backdrop around and within which the missionary encounter was acted but by making them part and parcel of it Through its approach Missionary Spaces provides a new paradigm for scrutinising the spatial turn for missionary histories and contributes to the increased attention across the humanities to space place and location since the late 1990s Space does not occur as an historical given but as a social construction to be analysed while at the same time having explanatory value of its own This book focuses on Africa and the Chinese Region with contributions on Burundi China Congo Egypt Ghana Kenya and Taiwan Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors Educational Resources Information Center (U.S.),1982 Thesaurus education includes a chapter on indexing and information retrieval methodology in the ERIC system

Material Change Jan De Maeyer, Peter Jan Margry, 2021-12-17

The long nineteenth century (c. 1780–c. 1920) in Western Europe saw an unprecedented rise in the production and possession of material goods. The material culture diversified and led to a rich variety of expressions. Dovetailing with a process of confessionalisation that manifested itself quite simultaneously, material religion witnessed its heyday in this period, from church buildings to small devotional objects. The present volume analyses how various types of reform—state, societal, and ecclesiastical—that were part of the process of modernisation affected the material devotional culture within Protestantism, Anglicanism, and Roman Catholicism. Although the contributions in this book start from a comparative European perspective, the case studies mostly focus on individual countries in North West Europe, namely Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark. The concept of material religion is approached in a very inclusive way. The volume discusses, amongst others, parish infrastructures and religious buildings that are part of land and cityscapes, but also looks into interior design and decorations of chapels, churches, monasteries, cemeteries, and educational, charitable, and health institutions. It comprises the fine arts of religious painting and sculpture, the applied arts, and iconographic designs. As far as private material culture is concerned, this volume examines and presents objects related to private devotion at home, including a great variety of popular devotional and everyday life objects, such as booklets, cards, photographs, and posters.
