Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly,1918 Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1921 Lincoln's Confidant Wayne C. Temple,2019-02-01 From the legendary Lincoln scholar Wayne C Temple comes the long awaited full length biography of Noah Brooks the influential Illinois journalist who championed Abraham Lincoln in Illinois state politics and became his almost daily companion at the White House Best remembered as one of the president s few true intimates Brooks was also a nationally recognized man of letters who mingled with the likes of Mark Twain and Bret Harte Temple draws on archives and papers long thought lost to re create Brooks s colorful life and relationship with Lincoln Brooks s closeness to the president made him privy to Lincoln s thoughts on everything from literature to spirituality Their frank conversations contributed to the wealth of journalism and personal observations that would make Brooks s writings a much quoted source for historians and biographers of Lincoln A carefully researched and well documented scholarly resource Lincoln s Confidant is the story of an extraordinary friendship by one of the luminaries of Lincoln scholarship Reader's Adviser and Bookman's Manual ,1921 The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1917 The Booklist ,1918 Books of 1912- ,1922 Bulletin of the New Rochelle Public Library New Rochelle Public Library,1916 Annual Report New York State Library,1918 Among Our Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1918 Branch Library Book News ,1925 Pasadena Library and Civic Magazine ,1917 Stand, Columbia : a History of Columbia University in the City of New York, 1754-2004 Robert A. McCaughey,2003 Merri Rosenberg Education Update Women in the American Theatre Faye E. Dudden,1994-01-01 Through a series of biographical sketches of female performers and managers Dudden provides a discussion of the conflicted messages conveyed by the early theatre about what it meant to be a woman It both showed women as sex objects and provided opportunities for careers

Meeting Without Knowing It Alexander Bubb,2016-02-11 Meeting Without Knowing It compares Rudyard Kipling and W B Yeats in the formative phase of their careers from their births in 1865 up to 1903 The argument consists of parallel readings wed to a biographic structure Reading the two poets in parallel often yields remarkable discursive echoes For example both men were similarly preoccupied with the visual arts with heroism with folklore balladry and the demotic voice Both struck vatic postures and made bids for public authority premised on an appeal to what they considered the mythopoeic impulse in fin de si cle culture My methodology consists in identifying these mutual echoes in their poetry and political rhetoric before charting them against intersections in their lives Kipling and Yeats were for much of their careers irreconcilable political enemies However a cross reading of the two poets bardic ambitions heroic tropes and interpretations of history reveals that to achieve their opposed political ends they frequently partook of a common discourse Supplementing this analysis with biographical context we can trace these shared concerns to their late 19th century artistic upbringing and to the closely linked social circles which they inhabited in fin de si cle London It is in fact their very mutuality during the

1890s which lent rancour to their ideological division after the Boer War In turn acrimony and denunciation only served to bind together all the more intimately in an argumentative spiral of revolving discourses two men who were often proximate but who actually met only in cartoons and satirical gossip Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1918 Quarterly Booklist Pratt Institute. Library,1923 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1917 These Many Years Brander Matthews,2017-12-23 Excerpt from These Many Years Recollections of a New Yorker Not only is the true autobiography likely to have solidier qualities than the book of reminiscences it ought also to be more amusing for its maker it ought to be more fun for him and therefore to have more avor for those who may read it because altho we may like to gossip about others we dearly love to chatter about ourselves In fact the only two occasions when a man has the privilege of amply expressing himself and of telling what he thinks and feels are when he summons the family physician to listen to his self scrutiny and when he solicits the gentle reader to assume the same attitude A bore has been defined as a man who wants to talk about himself when you want to talk about yourself Yet even by this condemnatory definition the auto biographer escapes for when the gentle reader set tles himself under the evening lamp and before the wood fire with a book in his hand he does not then desire to talk about himself whatever may be his wishes at other moments What the gentle reader demands is that the autobiographer shall so talk about himself as to make his interest in his personal theme more or less contagious that he shall some how and in some measure transmit to others the pleasure he finds in his gossip about himself Truly I think so the candid Sir Walter Scott made one of his characters confess writing history one s self being the subject is at any time as amusing as reading that of foreign countries About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works News Notes of California Libraries California State Library,1919 Vols for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries
