Through White Eyes:

Field guide to Birds of Melanesia Guy Dutson, 2020-09-03 The perfect guide to the birds of Melanesia New Caledonia the Solomons the Bismarcks and Vanuatu Written by leading ornithologist Guy Dutson this Helm Field Guide covers the species rich Melanesia region of the south west Pacific from New Caledonia and the Solomons through the Bismarcks to Vanuatu This is an increasingly popular destination for tours and travellers and one that has never before had complete field guide coverage For anyone travelling to this Pacific region this book is an indispensable birdwatching guide Species accounts include 650 superb illustrations allied with concise written information to aid quick and accurate identification The cover star is the Kagu the region's most iconic bird species and a highly sought after endemic of New Caledonia

Race Trouble Kevin Durrheim, Xoliswa Mtose, Lyndsay Brown, 2011-01-01 This book draws on the South African experience to develop a theory of race trouble with the central observation that transformation in South Africa has reshaped patterns and practices of encounter and exchange between historically defined race groups Race continues to feature prominently in these new forms of social interaction and by participating in them South Africans are cast once again as racial subjects advantaged or disadvantaged included or excluded colonizers or colonized

(Un)Following in Winnetou's Footsteps Sanja Runtić, Jana Marešová, Klára Kolinská, 2024-01-03 This book examines the ways in which North American Indigenous identity has been reimagined represented and negotiated in German Croatian Italian Polish and Czech culture Employing a cross disciplinary and comparative approach and drawing on a range of media from literature comics and film to photography painting and the performative arts across different historical and cultural backgrounds it aims to both contribute innovative scholarship on Indigenous studies in Europe and open a new avenue in the field by focusing on Central European settings that have received little or no critical attention to date The book's novelty also comes from its focus on the latest developments in the field including the Ravensburger Winnetou controversy which swept across Europe in 2022 echoing the 2017 Canadian debate over Indigenous appropriation and free speech It seeks to provide a sound reference and lay the groundwork for future scholarship by opening up a conversation on how Indigenous identities have been portrayed in Central European literature and media texts To this end it not only addresses generalized expectations about North American Indigenous people underlying Central European public discourse and imagination but also questions whether and to what extent some of the ingrained stereotypical views and practices such as hobbyism have been challenged in the face of Indigenous resurgence rapidly changing media and information sharing realities and global cultural shifts The closing interview with Miti playwright actor and director Bruce Sinclair underscores one of the book's key goals to spark an informed cross cultural dialogue that will reveal the mechanisms of as well as the contradictions and tensions inherent in the politics of Indigenous representation in Central European cultural industries and encourage Central Europeans to confront their own cultural assumptions and attitudes
