Tibet My Story:

Tibet Jetsun Pema,1999 The sister of His Holiness the Dalai Lama Jetsun Pema takes us on a rare and remarkable journey through the Tibet of yesteryear focusing on ordinary and monastic life as well as popular traditions culture and Buddhist wisdom She reveals her childhood growing up with her brother in pre invasion Tibet as well as her work today for the education of exiled Tibetan children Passionately written her story is a testimony of hope for the future of a free Tibet

Tibet My Story Random House,1998-06-01      English in Tibet, Tibet in English L. McMillin,2001-11-16 This book explores two kinds of self presentation in Tibet and the Tibetan diaspora that of British writers in their travel texts to Tibet from 1774 to 1910 and that of Tibetans in recent autobiographies in English McMillin contends that Tibet and the Anglophone West have had a long complex and convoluted relationship that can be explored in part through analysis of English language texts The first part of the book explores how a myth of epiphany in Tibet comes to dominate English texts of travel in Tibet while the second part considers how Tibetan autobiographers writing in English have responded and resisted Western images of them      Tibet in Chains International Campaign for Tibet,2021-01-20 In the early 1990s the notorious prisons in the Tibetan capital of Lhasa held hundreds of political prisoners who protested against China s misrule in Tibet Among them were a group of 14 nuns mostly from Garu nunnery near Lhasa who were imprisoned in the dreaded Drapchi Prison On account of their comradeship and solidarity including in recording a song in praise of His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Tibet they came to be known as the Drapchi 14 This book tells the story of nine of those nuns and provides a better understanding of the role played by Tibetan nuns in the Tibetan freedom movement Through their personal stories we are able to have a sense of their life in Tibet of their motivation to speak up against oppression despite the certainty that they would be severely punished and of the importance of Tibetan religion culture and identity and why the world should not forsake the Tibetan people I will always remember my former prison mates who suffer ill health I always support and participate in movements for the cause of Tibet and the Tibetan people In the beginning I had little knowledge of the history of Tibet but knew clearly that China and Tibet were separate Because the cause of Tibet is deeply embedded in our hearts and until this long felt aspiration is fulfilled my spirit will never die Sonam Choedon one of the nuns featured in the book

Lost Libraries J. Raven,2004-01-31 This pioneering volume of essays explores the destruction of great libraries since ancient times and examines the intellectual political and cultural consequences of loss Fourteen original contributions introduced by a major re evaluative history of lost libraries offer the first ever comparative discussion of the greatest catastrophes in book history from Mesopotamia and Alexandria to the dispersal of monastic and monarchical book collections the Nazi destruction of Jewish libraries and the recent horrifying pillage and burning of books in Tibet Bosnia and Iraq herself covering a press conference with the Dalai Lama in Dharamsala his exile home in India She never imagined a personal encounter with the spiritual leader would spark a global fourteen year journey to spotlight the stories of Tibetans in exile As she documents how Tibetans live between worlds Yee comes to know ordinary but extraordinary people like Topden a monk and unlikely veterinary assistant Norbu a chef and political refugee and Deckyi and Dhondup a couple forced to leave their middle class lives in Lhasa Yee follows them to other parts of India and across oceans and four continents where they forge new lives while sustaining Tibetan identity and culture Weaving a sweeping travel narrative with intimate on the ground reportage Far from the Rooftop of the World tells these stories and others against the backdrop of milestones and events in Tibet s recent history many memorable too many tragic The resulting portrait illuminates the humanity strength and perseverance of a people whose homeland is in crisis

Diary of a Journey Through Mongolia and Tibet in 1891 and 1892 William Woodville Rockhill,1894 Occupational Mobility in an Exiled Community Professor Dr Madhu Rajput,2019-01-01 The book is an empirical research done by Prof Madhu Rajput on socio economic status of Tibetan women in exile Though the author has focused on Tibetan women at Dharamsala and Dehradun she takes readers to the era when Tibet was an independent nation narrating their livelihood and traditions It is a story of skillful adaptation they displayed in the face of drastically changed circumstances in exile to make their existence meaningful and contributory In early 1960s during conflict migration and resettlement it were the Tibetan women and children who suffered the most as out of their sheltered existence they became vulnerable to various forms of gender based exploitation As a result of flight trauma anxiety and hardships of beginning a life in exile most of them suffer from psychological disorders which affect their social and family lives In addition to many subjects discussed in the book the author puts an effort to understand the challenges specific to Tibetan women and children and create sensitization on the issue The Mystery Rivers of Tibet Francis

Dream William N. Brown,2021-06-01 This open access book explores the historical cultural and philosophical contexts that have made anti poverty the core of Chinese society since Liberation in 1949 and why poverty alleviation measures evolved from the simplistic aid of the 1950s to Xi Jinping s precision poverty alleviation and its goal of eliminating absolute poverty by 2020 The book also addresses the implications of China s experience for other developing nations tackling not only poverty but such issues as pandemics rampant urbanization and desertification exacerbated by global warming The first of three parts draws upon interviews of rural and urban Chinese from diverse backgrounds and local and national leaders These interviews conducted in even the remotest areas of the country offer candid insights into the challenges that have forced China to continually evolve its programs to resolve even the most intractable cases of poverty The second part explores the historic cultural and philosophical roots of old China s meritocratic government and how its ancient Chinese ethics have led to modern Chinese socialism s stance that poverty amidst plenty is immoral Dr Huang Chengwei one of China s foremost anti poverty experts explains the challenges faced at each stage as China s anti poverty measures evolved over 70 years to emphasize enablement over aid and to foster bottom up initiative and entrepreneurialism culminating in Xi Jinping s precision poverty alleviation The book also addresses why national economic development alone cannot reduce poverty poverty alleviation programs must be people centered with measurable and accountable practices that reach even to household level which China has done with its First Secretary program The third part explores the potential for adopting China s practices in other nations including the potential for replicating China s successes in developing countries through such measures as the Belt and Road Initiative This book also addresses prevalent misperceptions about China s growing global presence and why other developing nations must address historic systemic causes of poverty and inequity before they can undertake sustainable poverty alleviation measures of their own
