

TIBET'S STOLEN CHILD: GENDHUN CHOEKYI NYIMA

10 YEARS OF ANGUISHED CRY: "WHERE IS THE PANCHEN LAMA?"

Kidnapped at the age of 6 by the People's Republic of China (PRC) in 1950, Tibet's second highest spiritual leader, the 11th Panchen Lama, Gendhun Choekyi Nyima has never been seen or heard of since. Now 15 years old, the young Panchen Lama, if alive, will have in total spent 10 longer years in confinement under the Chinese authorities.

Since no one outside the Chinese government has had contact with the Panchen Lama, it is unknown if he and his family are still alive. All attempts by the Tibetans and the international community to see the Panchen Lama have failed. The Chinese government has consistently denied requests from the United Nations and governments for access to Gendhun Choekyi Nyima and his family. They claim that he is leading a normal life and does not want to be disturbed.

On 14th May 1995, His Holiness the Dalai Lama announced Gendhun Choekyi Nyima as the reincarnation of the 10th Panchen Lama who died under mysterious circumstances in January 1989. On 17 May 1995, three days after this announcement by the Dalai Lama, Gendhun along with his 7 parents went missing.

In May 1996, suspicion was confirmed when the Chinese authorities admitted to holding the boy and his family in "protective custody."

Denouncing the Dalai Lama's choice as illegitimate, in November 1995 the PRC installed its own puppet Panchen Lama, a 6 year old named Gyaincen Norbu. The replacement of Gendhun Choekyi Nyima shows the PRC's insecurity regarding its legitimate authority in Tibet. According to Tibet's age-old religious tradition only the Dalai Lama has the right to identify the reincarnation of the Panchen Lama. The Dalai Lama also guides his education through to adulthood.

The installation of the fake Panchen Lama by the atheist regime of PRC is a bitter affront to the religious sentiments of the Tibetans and the Buddhists worldwide. Tibetans around the globe are deeply concerned about the kind of education the detained Panchen Lama is receiving. The disappearance of Gendhun Choekyi Nyima and his parents provides further evidence that China has not retained its control of religious freedom in Tibet.

Tibetan Women's Association (TWA) is acutely concerned about the fate and well being of the 11th Panchen Lama and calls on the PRC to disclose the truth about his whereabouts and condition. The Panchen Lama must be released and returned to the Tashi Lhunpo Monastery in Tibet with real freedom to pursue his studies and undertake his traditional role as a religious leader of the Tibetan people.

The world's youngest political prisoner at age 6 is now 15 years old and still behind bars. He turns sixteen on 23th April 2005. The search for the Panchen Lama will not stop. Global concern and campaigns are crucial for the Panchen Lama's freedom. TWA appeals to individuals, organizations and government officials who believe in truth and freedom to join us in our search.

We will not stop questioning until China answers truthfully to the incessant cries of the Tibetan, "Where is the Panchen Lama?"

GENDHUN CHOEKYI NYIMA IS THE ONLY PANCHEN LAMA IN THE HEARTS AND MINDS OF THE TIBETANS.
